Previously it was the human duplications but now that they've been extinguished their biggest challenge is dealing with the complications of public image. Socket Greeny now 17 years old has been a Paladin cadet for the past year and is nearing the final test. But that's the least of his problems. He's trying to live two lives: one as a superhero while hanging onto his normal life. While fearlessly dealing with his masochistic trainer, he's trying to salvage his deteriorating relationship with his girlfriend back home. But Socket's greatest challenge is to find his true enemy. He discovers that fear has many faces.

INTERVIEW WITH THE AUTHOR When did you start writing? My first effort started with Socket Greeny. It was a story I started for my son because he hated to read. It didn't work, but this character, Socket, took root. It was the first time I felt possessed by a character with a story to tell. It took me 5 years and countless rewrites to get it right. I waited by the mailbox after that, but the giant paycheck never arrived. If you can't make money, why write fiction? I didn't say you can't make money. There are a lot of people out there with a good book, whether it's romance, dystopia, science fiction, or young adult. I'm just a minnow in a crowded pond. It took a good deal of networking and research to realize just how hard it is. Thanks to e-publishing, I can get the book out. That frees me up to write what inspires me. Writing is the true love. There's something deeply satisfying to have characters come to life in your mind and watch their stories unfold. It's a deeper experience than reading someone else's story. What do you want readers to get from your stories? I've always been inspired by fearless writing that asked poignant questions, questions like who am I and what is the universe. Things that made me look at life slightly different. Books that exposed a layer of reality. Writing in the young adult genre appealed to me most because that's the age I really craved those questions and answers. I want readers to see the world slightly different. What is your favorite character? I love a bad, bad antagonist that you can't entirely hate. There's some smidgeon of redemption you feel inside this demented, sorry character. Heath Ledger's Joker. A despicable character that didn't deserve an ounce of pity, but for some reason, I didn't hate him as much as I should have. It's that character I find most intriguing. In The Socket Greeny Saga, the character Pike was my Joker.

Never Give Up Without a Fight Lee Heiman, 2020-02-28 For six months Lee Heiman lay in a hospital bed at the mercy of doctors, nurses, and the disease that nearly killed him. During that time, he relied on the strength of family, friends, and his own memories to help pull him through. Now let Lee take you on that journey of survival and self-discovery. Go behind the scenes of the music artists he worked with and the music festivals he produced and see firsthand some of the business battles that helped Lee realize you should never give up without a fight.

The Nonrunner's Marathon Guide for Women Dawn Dais, 2013-08-13 Anyone can run a marathon. Dawn Dais makes it a little more bearable and a lot more fun. Dawn Dais hated running. And it didn't like her much either. Her fitness routine consisted of avoiding the stairs in her own house because who really has the energy to climb stairs? It was with this exercise philosophy firmly in place that she set off to complete a marathon. The Nonrunner's Marathon Guide for Women is the ideal training manual for women who don't believe that running is their biological destiny but who dream of crossing the finish line nonetheless. Nonrunners offers a realistic training schedule and is chock full of how to's and funny observations which she felt were lacking in the guides she had consulted. She also integrates entries from her journal sharing everything you would need to know about the gear, the blisters, the early morning workouts, the late night carb binges and most important of all, the amazing rewards. Running may not seem like a friendly endeavor, but with Dawn Dais, you can tame the beast and hit the marathon trail. A Walk Against The Stream A. J. Ballinger, 2007-01-25 A Walk Against The Stream is a true story that revolves around a young man called up to do his National Service in war-torn Rhodesia in the late 1970's. His army posting is to one of the country's premier tourist resorts, and it is there that he falls in love with a young croupier from a nearby Casino. The story centres on their relationship and the challenges they face as the war rages around them and the village they live in. It is a passionate embrace of a first love and a lost love. Of wasted youth and blood spilled on the dry African soil. A fascinating insight into the life of two young people brought together by love and war in a truly magnificent Continent. My Sister's Walk with God Pamela
