- If you already have a relationship with your therapist, then you can skip the first three steps and start with step 4 and go from there. But if you haven't yet made the necessary preparations to improve on yourself, then you can skip step 4 and continue from step 5 onwards. I recommend you to undertake the exercises for the development of your self-worth regardless only proceed from step 5 onwards (please, don't skip a step of course)
- Read each step and then forwardly proceed and continue to go on through the next step
- Each evening I suggest you do the exercises properly, the next morning when you wake up to do that 4 steps again 3 times and then 4 times

The results of the study's primary and secondary analyses show that the more screening is used, the more likely it is that the study will be published. The results also suggest that the more screening is used, the more likely it is that the study will be published in a journal that is indexed in the Social Sciences Citation Index.
