Globalisation, Cultural Diversity and Values Education Joseph Zajda,2023-03-10 This book examines dominant discourses in values education globally It critiques dominant discourses and debates pertaining to values education and cultural identity set against the current backdrop of growing social stratification and unequal access to quality education It addresses discourses concerning globalisation ideologies and the state as well as approaches to values education in schools. The book explores the ambivalent and problematic connections between the state, globalisation and values education. It also explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable to research on values education, multiculturalism and identity politics. Drawing on diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to globalisation, the book focuses on globalisation ideology and values education and critically examines recent research dealing with cultural diversity and its impact of identity politics. Given the need for a multiple perspective approach, authors from diverse backgrounds offer a wealth of insights contributing to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between values education, multiculturalism and national identity. With contributions from key scholars worldwide, the book should be required reading for a broad spectrum of users including policy makers, academics, graduate students, education policy researchers, administrators and practitioners.

Reference and Information Services Kay Ann Cassell, Uma Hiremath, 2023-01-17. From the ongoing flood of misinformation to the swift changes occasioned by the pandemic, a myriad of factors is spurring our profession to rethink reference services. Luckily, this classic text is back in a newly overhauled edition that thoughtfully addresses the evolving reference landscape. Designed to complement every introductory library reference course, Cassell and Hiremath's book also serves as the perfect resource to guide current practitioners in their day to day work. It teaches failsafe methods for identifying important materials by matching specific types of questions to the best available sources regardless of format. Guided by a national advisory board of educators and experts, this thoroughly updated text presents chapters covering fundamental concepts, major reference sources and special topics while also offering fresh insights on timely issues including a basic template for the skills required and expectations demanded of the reference librarian, the pandemic's effect on reference services and how the ingenuity employed by libraries in providing remote and virtual reference is here to stay, a new chapter dedicated to health information with a special focus on health equity and information sources, selecting and evaluating reference materials with strategies for keeping up to date, a heightened emphasis on techniques for evaluating sources for misinformation and ways to give library users the tools to discern facts vs fake facts, reference as programming, readers advisory services, developmentally appropriate material for children and young adults and information literacy, evidence based guidance on handling microaggressions in reference interactions featuring discussions of cultural humility and competence alongside recommended resources on implicit bias, managing, assessing and improving reference services and the future of information and reference services, encapsulating existing models, materials and services to project possible evolutions in the dynamic world of reference.
