Thoughts??

- Algorithms decide what we see
- Budgets determine visibility
- Social media is not a home for events
- Information is EVERYWHERE
- Businesses rely on global tools to reach audiences that are in their backyards
- Why do I have to type "near me"??

 author Carrie Whitehead lost her youngest child Lezlie in a motor vehicle accident She struggled with every emotion possible and at times felt she could not face the day let alone anyone in general Following the advice of many to put her feelings into words Whitehead began writing a blog in January 2019 In a series of daily posts she shared how she dealt with the loss detailing the process of her grief in real time Now she has gathered those essays together with the goal of helping others struggling after the loss of a child Through personal stories and reflections Bible verses and enduring expressions of faith she hopes to convey to grieving parents that what they are feeling is normal and that everyone experiences grief differently This personal narrative formed from a year s worth of blog posts presents a mother s journey through grief after the loss of her

USA Today bestselling author Helena Hunting together in one convenient package for the first time Shacking Up Ruby Scott is months behind on rent and can't seem to land a steady job. She has one chance to turn things around with a big audition. But instead of getting her big break, she gets sick as a dog and completely bombs it in the most humiliating fashion. All thanks to a mysterious gorgeous guy who kissed and then coughed on her at a party the night before. Luckily her best friend might have found the perfect opportunity: a job staying at the lavish penthouse apartment of hotel magnate Bancroft Mills while he's out of town taking care of his exotic pets. But when the newly evicted Ruby arrives to meet her new employer, it turns out Bane is the same guy who got her sick. Hooking Up Amalie Whitfield is the picture of a blushing bride during her wedding reception; her husband can be heard by Amalie and their guests getting off with someone else. She has every reason to freak out, and in a moment of insanity, she throws herself at the first hot-blooded male she sees. But he's not interested in becoming her revenge screw. Amalie decides to go on her honeymoon alone, only to find the man who rejected her also heading to the same tiny island for work. But this time, he isn't holding back. They might agree that what happens on the island should stay on the island, but neither one can deny that their attraction is more than just physical. Making Up Cosy Felton is great at her job, so when the hottest guy she's ever seen walks into the shop looking completely overwhelmed, she's more than happy to turn on the charm and help him purchase all of the items on his list. Griffin Mills is using his business trip in Las Vegas as a chance to escape the broken pieces of his life in New York City, but pleasantly surprised when he finds himself attracted to the sales girl that helped him. As skeptical as Cosy may be of Griffin's motivations, there's something about him that intrigues her. But sometimes what happens in Vegas doesn't always stay in Vegas, and when real life gets in the way, all bets are off.
