teaching practice in an affordable sustainable way Science 5-11 Kendra McMahon, Alan Howe, Chris Collier, Sarah Earle, Dan Davies, Darren McKay, Kerry-Anne Barber, Lisa Howarth, 2024-11-13 This fully updated fourth edition of the bestselling textbook Science 5-11 provides a comprehensive introduction to current research and professional practice for teaching science in the primary school. Chapters are organised into five sections: first introducing theory and practice, then providing specific guidance on teaching topics in biology, chemistry and physics, and finally discussing supporting science across the whole school. Updates to the new edition include: Responding to recent changes in the Initial Teacher Education framework; discussion about cognitive science is integrated more fully throughout; Supporting all children's engagement in science by suggesting inclusive and creative ways of building and consolidating knowledge, including making connections between topics and with the wider world; New discussion on planning to support pupil progression in scientific knowledge throughout their time at primary school; building on Early Years and preparing for transition to secondary school; Presenting current research and outlining guidance on best practice. Science 5-11 provides a guide to the subject knowledge curriculum requirements and pedagogical techniques to successfully teach science within the primary school. Exploring Children's Learning Christine Ritchie, 2016-12-08 Exploring Children's Learning 3-11 years is essential reading for those passionate about supporting children's learning environments from Early Years to Key Stage 2. By combining learning with important aspects of a broad curriculum content, it will inspire and enhance an interest in supporting children's learning. Individual chapters focus on key areas of the curriculum such as literacy and history, numeracy and science, as well as more general topics such as creativity, assessment and the emotional and behavioural aspects of learning. The book takes an objective view on control over curriculum and offers practical insights into how supportive learning opportunities can create enjoyable and satisfying lifelong learning habits, preparing children for the challenges they may face in their adult working life. Whether you dip into chapters or read through the book as a whole, you will develop your understanding of the complexity of learning and the lifelong effects implicit in this, not only from the individual basis that each child faces in terms of learning how to learn, but also concerning the differences in learning strategies required to successfully negotiate subject knowledge across a range of disciplines. This book is a must-read for students of Childhood and Education Studies programmes, those undertaking Initial Teacher Training, as well as general readers with an interest in supporting children's learning. The School Librarian, 2002 Curriculum Focus - History KS1 John Davis, 2012-09-18 Part of a popular series that will inspire teachers, especially the non-specialists, to teach history and geography with confidence.
