What The Spirit is Saying to the Church Reverend Anthony Kelley, 2017-09-25 What the Spirit is Saying to the Church is an apocalyptic view from the letters to the seven churches in the book of Revelation that begins its message to the church admonishing her to return to her first love which she has abandoned The author contends that this first love requirement demands a redirection of priorities for the Twenty First Century Church in the Black Experience It demonstrates how for the love of Christ she must move beyond a limited vision of just a good looking church and satisfaction with old definitions Christ gives a rebuke to the church and a direct warning that if she does not repent and return to her first love he will then remove her lampstand Reverend Kelley s preaching is spiritually sound and intellectually stimulating and challenging and also socially relevant He deeply believes in what I would call a well rounded ministry That is to say that ministry for him involves not only mastering the preached Word but also taking seriously and fulfilling the roles of pastor priest and prophet REV DR LEWIS V BALDWIN PHD RETIRED PROFESSOR OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY Reverend Kelley is a preacher of the Word His ability to prepare and deliver biblically sound inspirational and spirit filled sermons is a gift that allows those who hear him to participate in the story of salvation at personal and social levels He is not a closed lip babbler who preaches to itching ears rather he speaks with power and authority under the watchcare of an humble spirit and a disciplined mind REV DR WALTER EARL FLUKER PHD MARTIN LUTHER KING JR PROFESSOR OF ETHICAL LEADERSHIP AND DIRECTOR OF THE HOWARD THURMAN INSTITUTE BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church Wesley Black,Chap Clark,Malan Nel,2010-01-05 Join the conversation as experts propose defend and explore Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church In a dialog that often gets downright feisty four youth ministry academicians delineate their distinct philosophical and ecclesiological views regarding how youth ministry relates to the church at large and leave a taste of what's profound and what's not in these four typologies Inclusive congregational Malan Nel What happens when a church thoroughly integrates its adolescents making them full partners in every aspect of congregational life Preparatory Wesley Black Why and how should a church consider its teenagers as disciples in training and its youth ministry a school of preparation for future participation in church life Missional Chap Clark What does a church look like whose youth ministry does not necessarily nurture church kids but is essentially evangelistic Whose youths and youth workers are considered missionaries Strategic Mark Senter How feasible is it for a youth ministry to become a new church on its own the youth pastor becoming the pastor and the new church planted with the blessing of the mother church In Four View of Your Ministry and the Church solid academic writing and an inviting tone and design create a compelling text for both in the field practicing youth workers and undergraduates and graduate students

The Megachurch and the Mainline Stephen Ellingson, 2008-09-15 Religious traditions provide the stories and rituals that define the core values of church members Yet modern life in America can make those customs seem undesirable even impractical As a result many congregations refashion church traditions so they may remain powerful and salient How do these transformations occur How do clergy and worshipers negotiate which aspects should be preserved or discarded Focusing on the innovations of several mainline Protestant churches in the San Francisco Bay Area Stephen Ellingson's The Megachurch and the Mainline provides new understandings of the transformation of spiritual traditions For Ellingson these particular congregations typify a new type of Lutheranism one which combines the evangelical approaches that are embodied in the growing legion of megachurches with American society's emphasis on pragmatism and consumerism Here Ellingson provides vivid descriptions of congregations as they sacrifice hymns in favor of rock music and scrap traditional white robes and stoles for Hawaiian shirts while also making readers aware of the long history of similar attempts to Americanize the Lutheran tradition This is an important examination of a religion in flux one that speaks to the growing popularity of evangelicalism in America

Open Friendship in a Closed Society Peter Slade, 2009-10-09 Peter Slade examines Mission Mississippi's model of racial reconciliation which stresses one on one individual friendships among religious people of different races and considers whether it can effectively address the issue of social justice Slade argues that Mission Mississippi's goal of changing Mississippi one relationship at a time is both a pragmatic strategy and a theological statement of hope for social and economic change in Mississippi

Consuming Jesus Paul Louis Metzger, 2007-10-04 Foreword by Donald Miller Afterword by John M Perkins Many Americans think that race problems are a thing of the past because we no longer live under the Jim Crow laws that once sustained overt structures of segregation Unfortunately says Paul Louis Metzger today we live under an updated version of segregation through the subtle power of unchallenged norms of consumer preference Consumerism affects and infects the church reinforcing race and class divisions in society Intentionally or unintentionally many churches have set up structures of church growth that foster segregation such as appealing to consumer appetites

Metzger here argues that the evangelical Christian church needs to admit this fault and intentionally move away from race class and consumer segregation Challenging the consumerism that fosters ethnic and economic divisions and distorts evangelical Christianity Consuming Jesus puts forth a theologically grounded call to restructure the church s passions and practices transforming the evangelical imagination around a nobler all consuming vision of the Christian faith Visit the Consuming Jesus blog created by the The Institute for the Theology of Culture New Wine New Wineskins at <http://consumingjesus.org> The Acts & Proceedings of the ...
