Negotiating Peace And Confronting Corruption Challenges For Post Conflict Societies:

An Introduction to International Negotiation Bertram I. Spector, 2025-08-26 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the international negotiation system its key elements and processes what major issues and challenges it faces and its impacts on international relations As a major catalyst of global dynamics negotiation is used to resolve conflicts and promote cooperation peacefully It is important to understand how it works First the book analyzes the principal factors that interact to move the negotiation system forward the issues and context actors structures strategies and outcomes Then the discussion considers the four basic subprocesses of international negotiation getting to the table conducting negotiations developing implementation plans and continuing negotiations in the post agreement period Relevant research is presented in each chapter to elaborate on these dynamics and offer case studies of negotiations addressing intrastate conflict the environment terrorism anti corruption and good governance and post agreement issues In addition the book examines major conflictual conundrums currently facing the world in the Middle East and Ukraine to explore opportunities for negotiated solutions Providing a solid mix of theory research and real world cases that offers readers a comprehensive appreciation of the field and how it is used on a practical level this is an excellent basic text for courses on international relations peace studies conflict resolution and international negotiations and a useful resource for researchers policymakers and practitioners

Education and Social Cohesion in a Post-conflict and Divided Nation Taro Komatsu, 2024-01-22 This book discusses education s role of developing social cohesion in a post conflict environment where tensions continue to exist between the three constituent ethnic groups It offers fresh insights into the relationship between education and social cohesion in a specific context of Bosnia Herzegovina where the need to rebuild social trust is acutely felt This book first elaborates the concept of social cohesion and illustrates possible mechanisms through which education can develop or further erode social cohesion in already divided societies Then it carefully examines such mechanisms using a case study of a Bosnia Herzegovina which witnessed violent conflict instigated by ethno identity politics during 1992 1995 and has been struggling to reconstruct its broken social fabric since then

The Dynamics of International Negotiation Bertram I. Spector, 2022-09-16 This book explores the dynamics of international negotiations from the perspectives of researchers and practical negotiators Reinforcing the idea that the study of negotiation is not merely an academic endeavor the essays reflect the author s lifetime experiences as a negotiation researcher and provider of analytical support to international negotiation teams Addressing a wide range of critical issues such as creativity and experimentation psychological dynamics avoiding incomplete agreements engineering the negotiation context reframing negotiations for development conflicts understanding what matters when implementing agreements utilizing decision support systems engaging new actors and expanding core values each chapter opens new doors on our conceptual and practical understanding of international negotiations The author introduces new ways of understanding and explaining the negotiation process from different intellectual perspectives The goal of this book is to resolve many critical unanswered questions by stimulating new research on these dynamics and developing new approaches that can help negotiation practitioners be more effective The book will be used in university courses on international negotiation and conflict resolution and provide a useful resource for researchers policymakers practitioners NGOs donor organizations and grant giving organizations International Negotiation and Good Governance

Bertram I. Spector, 2023-10-02 This book investigates two critical political science domains international negotiation processes and the establishment of good governance practices using real world examples The author's observations analyses and recommendations provide a unique blend of researcher and practitioner experiences that were implemented in conjunction with government authorities businesses the media and citizen groups in over 40 countries The book examines negotiation process dynamics from several perspectives the inclusion of new actors the impact of psychology creativity and values the significance of post agreement negotiations and how negotiations that resolve civil wars need to incorporate explicit good governance provisions From the governance perspective the book analyzes the age old problem of corruption which is often a major factor responsible for bad governance practices economic dysfunction and widespread poverty It explores the importance of strengthening citizen advocacy for reforms designing and implementing anti corruption strategies for fragile states customizing anti corruption strategies through targeted risk assessments and deconstructing the negotiation give and take in corrupt transactions to reduce their impact Each chapter incorporates the author's practitioner experiences with his research contributions along with examples of events he experienced when implementing programs around the world This unique volume will be used in university courses on international negotiation conflict resolution governance practices international development and comparative politics as well as providing a useful resource for researchers policymakers practitioners NGOs donor organizations and grant giving organizations Curbing Corruption

Bertram I. Spector, 2021-12-19 Many anti corruption efforts have had only a minimal effect on curbing the problem of corruption This book explains why that is and shows readers what works in the real world in the fight against corruption and why Counter corruption initiatives often focus on the legal institutional and contextual factors that facilitate corrupt behavior but these have had only nominal impacts because most of these reforms can be circumvented by government officials powerful citizens and business people who are relentless in their quest for self interest This book argues that instead we should target the key individual and group drivers of corrupt behavior and through them promote sustainable behavioral change Drawing on over 25 years of practical experience planning designing and implementing anti corruption programs in over 40 countries as well as a wealth of insights from social psychological ethical and negotiation research this book identifies innovative tools that target these core human motivators of corruption with descriptions of pilot tests that show how they can work in practice Anti corruption is again becoming a priority issue prompted by the emergence of more authoritarian regimes and the public scrutiny of government responses to the COVID 19 pandemic Straddling theory and practice this book is the perfect guide to what works and what doesn't and will be valuable for policymakers NGOs development practitioners and corruption studies students and researchers Peace Diplomacy, Global Justice and International Agency Carsten Stahn, Henning Melber, 2014-04-24 This critical review of Hammarskjöld's legacy as Secretary General explores the contemporary relevance of his international civil service agency and leadership When Violence Works Patrick Barron, 2019-04-15 Why are some places successful in moving from war to consolidated peace while others continue to be troubled by violence And why does postconflict violence take different forms and have different intensities By developing a new theory of postconflict violence Patrick Barron's When Violence Works makes a significant contribution to our understanding Barron picks out three postconflict regions in Indonesia in which to analyze what happens once the official fighting ends North Maluku has seen peace consolidated Maluku still witnesses large episodes of violence and Aceh experiences continuing occurrences of violence but on a smaller scale than in Maluku He argues that violence after war has ended revenge killings sexual violence gang battles and violent crime in addition to overtly political conflict is not the result of failed elite bargains or weak states but occurs because the actors involved see it as beneficial and lowcost His findings pertain directly to Indonesia but the theory will have relevance far beyond as those studying countries such as Colombia the Philippines Iraq Afghanistan and Syria seek a framework in which to assess what happens after war ends Barron's theory also provides practical guidance for policymakers and development practitioners Ultimately When Violence Works pushes forward our understanding of why postconflict violence occurs and takes the forms it does Transnational Financial Crime Nikos Passas, 2017-07-05 Financial crime affects virtually all areas of public policy and is increasingly transnational The essays in this volume address both the theoretical and policy issues arising from financial crime and feature a wide variety of case studies and cover topics such as state revenue collection criminal enterprises money laundering the use of new technologies and methods in financial crime corruption terrorism proliferation of WMD sanctions third world debt procurement telecommunications cyberspace the defense industry and intellectual property Taken together these essays form a must read collection for scholars and students in law finance and criminology Constitution-Making under UN Auspices Vijayashri Sripathi, 2020-01-16 In 1949 United Nations Constitutional Assistance UNCA was conceived to promote the Western liberal constitution This was colonial trusteeship However in 1960 as a step towards decolonization the United Nations General Assembly rejected internationalized constitution making and by extension UNCA All colonies acquired the right to draft their own constitutions without any international assistance Nonetheless in the same year UNCA was revived and since then it has helped over 40 developing sovereign states to adopt the Western liberal constitution for the aims of building peace preventing conflict and promoting good governance in these independent states This book scrutinizes UNCA and its offshoot UN International Territorial Administration ITA including their historical origins and revival from 1960 to 2019 Sripathi argues that although the United Nations UN uses UNCA to help developing sovereign states secure debt relief it undertakes UNCA to modernize them with a view to strengthen their supposedly weakened sovereignty By doing so the UN is seeking these states adoption of a Western liberal style constitution thus violating their right to self determination The book shows how UNCA sires and guides UN legislative assistance in all state sectors security judicial electoral commercial parliamentary public administration and criminal Irrespective of UNCA s benevolent motivations such intrusive interventions impose the old forms of domination and perpetuate global inequality Negotiating Peace and Confronting Corruption

Bertram Irwin Spector,2011 In Negotiating Peace and Confronting Corruption Bertram Spector argues that the peace negotiation table is the best place to lay the groundwork for good governance How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa

Nkwazi N. Mhango,2024-10-02 The book How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa What Africans Must Do aims to expose the root causes of Africa s struggles including colonialism greed and artificial national divisions It examines the lasting impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 85 where European powers divided Africa leading to dependence and underdevelopment The book also criticises the role of African leaders in perpetuating these divisions and hindering progress It argues that the artificial borders created at the Berlin Conference have been detrimental to Africa and calls for unity and a rejection of the colonial legacy to achieve true independence and prosperity Corrupción en Colombia - Tomo IV: Corrupción, Estado e Instrumentos Jurídicos

United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on African Affairs, 2009 Corruption and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Dominik Zaum, Christine Cheng, 2012-02-20 This edited volume explores and evaluates the roles of corruption in post conflict peacebuilding The problem of corruption has become increasingly important in war to peace transitions eroding confidence in new democratic institutions undermining economic development diverting scarce public resources and reducing the delivery of vital social services Conflict affected countries offer an ideal environment for pervasive corruption Their weak administrative institutions and fragile legal and judicial systems mean that they lack the capacity to effectively investigate and punish corrupt behaviour In addition the sudden inflow of donor aid into post conflict countries and the desire of peacebuilding actors including the UN the international financial institutions aid agencies and non governmental organisations to disburse these funds quickly create incentives and opportunities for corruption While corruption imposes costs and compromises on peacebuilding efforts opportunities for exploiting public office can also be used to entice armed groups into signing peace agreements thus stabilising post war environments This book explores the different functions of corruption both conceptually and through the lens of a wide range of case studies It also examines the impact of key anti corruption policies on peacebuilding environments The dynamics that shape the relationship between corruption and the political and economic developments in post conflict countries are complex This analysis highlights that fighting corruption is only one of several important peacebuilding objectives and that due consideration must be given to the specific social and political context in considering how a sustainable peace can be achieved This book will be of great interest to students of peacekeeping and peacebuilding criminology political economy war and conflict studies international security and IR

Conflicts in the Middle East and Africa Moosa Elayah, Bakeel Alzandani, 2024-03-21 This book explores the multifaceted dynamics between state and non state actors in public policy during and after conflict in the Middle East and Africa It offers case studies and policy relevant ideas for conflict affected areas to move forward in a more sustainable manner Following the Arab Spring revolutions civil wars have plagued the Middle East and North Africa region along with other countries in Africa The task of rebuilding peace and institutionalizing stability in conflict affected countries or fragile states emerging from conflict is a daunting uncertain and context specific task Yet focusing on understanding conflicts in the Middle East and Africa offers an important view of the role of non state actors during conflicts These regions feature the highest numbers of inter and intra state conflicts and the governments are more often contested than in the rest of the world The volume proposes different cases addressing the fundamental challenge of inclusion and cohesion of nonstate actors during conflicts By providing a comprehensive exploration of diverse perspectives it empowers readers to engage with the pressing issues facing these regions This is a useful resource for students and researchers in public policy and governance studies development studies and NGOs and Middle East and African Studies

Local and Global Dynamics of Peacebuilding Christine Cubitt, 2012-03-12 Local and Global Dynamics of Peacebuilding examines the complex contributing factors which led to war and state collapse in Sierra Leone and the international peacebuilding and statebuilding operations which followed the cessation of the violence This book presents nuanced and contextually specific knowledge of Sierra Leone s political and war histories and the outcomes of the implementation of programmes of post conflict reforms It embodies an analysis of the complex challenges involved in aligning international norms and values to local expectations and local priorities and examines the role of local and global actors and structures in attempts to build a strong state and lasting peace Using a theoretical framework informed by liberal peace philosophy as well as detailed and nuanced empirical evidence from the field the book constructs a critical analysis of the contemporary global paradigm for building longer term peace in war torn fractured and fragile societies This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding war and conflict studies development studies African politics and IR security studies

Political Economy of Statebuilding Mats Berdal, 2017-07-05 This volume examines and evaluates the impact of international statebuilding interventions on the political economy of post conflict countries over the past 20 years While statebuilding today is typically discussed in the context of peacebuilding and stabilisation operations the current phase of interest in external interventions to re build and strengthen governmental institutions can be traced back to the good governance policies of the International Financial Institutions IFIs in the early 1990s These sought political changes and improvements in the quality of governance in countries that were subject to or were seeking support under IFI designed structural adjustment programmes The focus of this book is specifically on state building efforts in conflict affected countries countries that are emerging or have recently emerged from periods of war and violent conflict The interventions covered in the present volume fall into three broad and overlapping categories International administrations and transformative occupations East Timor Iraq and Kosovo Complex peace operations Afghanistan Burundi Haiti and Sudan Governance and state building programmes conducted in the context of economic assistance Georgia and Macedonia This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding humanitarian intervention post conflict reconstruction political economy international organisations and IR Security Studies in general
