New Testament Church Library Studies:

History of New Testament Research, Vol. 2 William Baird, 2002-11-01 Stressing the historical and theological significance of pivotal figures and movements William Baird guides the reader through intriguing developments and critical interpretation of the New Testament from its beginnings in Deism through the watershed of the Tübingen school Familiar figures appear in a new light and important previously forgotten stages of the journey emerge Baird gives attention to the biographical and cultural setting of persons and approaches affording both beginning student and seasoned scholar an authoritative account that is useful for orientation as well as research Reading Philemon Panayotis

Coutsoumpos, Panagiotis L. Kampouris, 2022-01-27 Paul's letter to Philemon is one of the writings that seem likely as a common Hellenistic letter of the time In the letter to Philemon we find basic concepts of the author's theology on the issues of the slavery and human relationships What made Philemon a special letter is an appealing refined and sophisticated rhetorical style Another feature of Philemon is its originality and more remarkable is Paul's appeal to Philemon on behalf of Onesimus Paul writes as a prisoner of Christ but shows few details regarding the situation of his imprisonment Paul distinguishes Philemon's love and faith because he sees them as indissoluble Thus Philemon is a revealing text because it is the one New Testament letter that deals with a case of slavery Exegeting the Jews: The Early Reception of the Johannine "Jews" Michael Azar, 2016-04-18 In Exegeting the Jews: The Early Reception of the Johannine Jews Michael G Azar analyzes the rhetorical function of the Gospel of John's Jews in the earliest surviving full length expositions of John in Greek Origen's Commentary on John 3rd cent John Chrysostom's Homilies on John 4th cent and Cyril of Alexandria's Commentary on John 5th cent While scholarship often has portrayed the reception history Wirkungsgeschichte of the Gospel's Jews as simply and uniformly anti Jewish or antisemitic Azar demonstrates that these three writers primarily read John's narrative typologically employing the situation and characters in the Gospel not against contemporary Jews with whom they regularly interacted but as types of each patristic writer's own intra Christian struggle and opponents The New Testament Commentary Guide

Nijay Gupta, 2020-10-07 An indispensable map to the often intimidating world of biblical commentaries For many beginning students of the New Testament looking for a commentary seems like a simple process identify the book you're studying search for a commentary and pick one However the reality is far from simple With new commentaries being published every year on every book of the Bible the student of Scripture can quickly become overwhelmed with an inexhaustible amount of resources What is the student to do In this short accessible resource Nijay Gupta helps beginning Bible students understand the various available commentaries their strengths unique contributions and ultimately how to use them Through The New Testament Commentary Guide readers will understand how to incorporate commentaries into their learning and be enriched in their study of the Bible A Curriculum Design Manual for Theological Education LeRoy Ford, 2003-02-26 Features of A Curriculum Design Manual for Theological Education: A Learning Outcomes Focus by LeRoy Ford Fifteen complete

Glaube in den Pastoralbriefen Bernhard Mutschler, 2010 English summary The Pastoral Epistles speak more than other early Christian scriptures about faith pistis and they do it differently than Paul does An interpretation of all the records of faith pistis word family shows that the scope of pistis in the Corpus Pastorale is huge On the one hand it is a primary word framing all references of Christian life and on the other hand it is completely determined by the relation to Christ and or God Thus faith has an integrating character and at the same time it indicates the center of Christian existence At the beginning of this first monograph about faith in the Pastoral Epistles the author examines some fundamental terms such as faith pistis fides credere as well as the Corpus Pastorale the Pastoral Epistles or the TritoPaulines German description Vom Glauben Pistis ist in den Pastoralbriefen in vielfachen Kontexten und mehr als in anderen fruhchristlichen Schriften die Rede Trotz des sehr engen Anschlusses an Paulus sind aber z B nicht die Werke des Gesetzes als Gegensatz im Blick Eine Auslegung samtlicher Belege zeigt dass Pistis im Corpus Pastorale eine grosse Breite aufweist Glaube bildet einerseits eine Art Rahmenbegriff und Grundwort fur das Christliche uberhaupt und bleibt andererseits christologisch bestimmt er bildet die Grundrelation zwischen Gott und Mensch und stellt eine belastbare Basis der Gemeinschaft dar Pistis hat integrierenden Charakter und bezeichnet die Mitte christlicher Existenz Zu Beginn der bisher einzigen Monographie zum Thema untersucht Bernhard Mutschler die Begriffe Glaube glauben Pistis pisteuein fides credere sowie Pastoralbriefe Corpus Pastorale und Tritopaulinen ausfuhrlich

King, 2020-11-09 The Gospel of John and Epicureanism share vocabulary and reject the conventions of Graeco Roman theology Would it then have been easy for an Epicurean to become a Christian or vice versa Fergus J King suggests that such claims become unlikely when detailed analyses of the two traditions are set out and compared The first step in his examination looks at evidence for potential engagement between the two traditions historically and geographically Both traditions address concerns about the good life death and the divine However this correspondence soon unravels as their worldviews are far from identical Shared terms like Saviour their respective rituals and teaching about community life reveal substantial differences in ethos and behaviour Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, Jay E. Reading with the Grain of Scripture Richard B. Hays, 2020-10-22 Christianity Today Book Award in Biblical Studies 2021 All these essays illustrate in one way or another how I have sought to carry out scholarly work as an aspect of discipleship as a process of faith seeking exegetical clarity Richard Hays has been a giant in the field of New Testament studies since the 1989 publication of his Echoes of Scripture in the Letters of Paul His most significant essays of the past twenty five years are now collected in this volume representing the full fruition of major themes from his body of work the importance of narrative as the glue that holds the Bible together the figural coherence between the Old and New Testaments the centrality of the resurrection of Jesus the hope for New Creation and God's eschatological transformation of the world the importance of standing in trusting humility before the text the significance of reading Scripture within and for the community of faith Readers will find themselves guided toward Hays's hermeneutic of trust rather than the hermeneutic of suspicion that has loomed large in recent biblical studies

Creation Imagery in the Gospel of John Carlos Raul Sosa Siliezar, 2015-07-30 Sosa Siliezar investigates the presence and significance of creation imagery in the Gospel of John He argues that John has intentionally included only a limited albeit significant number of instances of creation imagery and that he has positioned them carefully to highlight their significance Sosa Siliezar contends that the instances of creation imagery used in varying contexts function collectively in a threefold way that is consonant with John's overall argument First John uses them to portray Jesus in close relationship with his Father existing apart from and prior to the created order Second John uses creation imagery to assert the primal and universal significance of Jesus and the message about him and to privilege him over other important figures in the story of Israel Third John uses creation imagery to link past reality with present and future reality portraying Jesus as the agent of creation whom the reader should regard as the primal agent of revelation and salvation The book concludes by underscoring how these findings inform our understanding of John's Christology and Johannine dualism

Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe, 2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12 18 29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19 9 Deut 5 28 while Heb 12 25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant

according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant Perspectives on New Testament Textual Criticism, Volume 2 Eldon Jay Epp, 2020-11-30 Eldon Jay Epp's second volume of collected essays consists of articles previously published during 2006-2017 All treat aspects of the New Testament textual criticism but focus on historical and methodological issues relevant to constructing the earliest attainable text of New Testament writings More specific emphasis falls upon the nature of textual transmission and the text critical process and heavily on the criteria employed in establishing that earliest available text Moreover textual grouping is examined at length and prominent is the current approach to textual variants not approved for the constructed text for they have stories to tell regarding theological ethical and real life issues as the early Christian churches sought to work out their own status practices and destiny
