New World Broken World Book 5:

Women and New and Africana Religions Lillian Ashcraft-Eason, Darnise Martin, Oyeronke Olademo, 2009-10-27 This volume explores the lives of women around the world from the perspective of the New and Africana faiths they practice This probing and thought provoking series of essays brings together in one volume the multifaceted experiences of women in the New and Africana religions as practiced today With this work religion becomes a lens for examining the lives of women of diverse ethnicities and nationalities across the social spectrum In Women and New and Africana Religions readers hear from women from a number of religious spiritual persuasions around the world including Africa Asia the Caribbean South America and North America These voices form the core of remarkable explorations of family and environment social and spiritual empowerment sexuality and power and ways in which worldview informs roles in religion and society Each essay includes scene setting historical and social background information and fascinating insights from renowned scholars sharing their own research and firsthand experiences with their subjects

Dreamcare David F. White, 2013-05-21 Dreamcare A Theology of Youth Spirit and Vocation helps parents youth workers and congregations cultivate purpose and vocation in youth and young adults Recent findings disclose a pervasive sense of purposelessness that threatens young adults health and well being and also the common good The good news is that research shows all young people also have an often hidden sense of purpose that can be noticed named and nurtured by parents and communities This volume supplements research with findings from Emory s Youth Theological Initiative YTI which identifies four pathways desire joy compassion and responsibility by which young people discover a sense of purpose Growing from research at YTI this volume provides concrete suggestions for how Christian communities might engage young people in practices to cultivate a sense of purpose including narrative resources by which to make theological sense of their impulses of desire joy compassion and responsibility

The Social Contexts of Disability Ministry Albert A. Herzog Jr., 2017-09-29 This book provides pastors seminarians and interested laity with the background necessary to understand the need for disability ministry and the contexts out of which the church s ministry among people with disabilities must emerge This is true not only for descriptions of ministries over the past sixty years but also the challenges disability poses for biblical studies church history Christian theology and ethics Insights are gained not only from mainstream secular and religious sources but from evangelical and other conservative materials The blending of items from different religious resources reveals just how ubiquitous disability is and the need for disability ministry now and for many years into the future The book s format is such that either it can serve as a text for courses on disability ministry or individual chapters can be employed in various courses on selected topics in biblical studies history theology and ethics Pastors and lay leaders will enjoy the depth of coverage for each topic This is a book about a serious subject for serious readers Its materials are designed to inform stimulate and promote disability ministry as a topic worthy of serious study
