The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle class woman: economic independence from men, choice of occupation, participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government, access to higher education, admittance to the male professions, particularly medicine, and of course the power of suffrage equal to that of men. First published in 1979, this twentieth volume contains issues from 1887. With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark and an index compiled by Anna Clark, this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth century feminism and the women's movement in Britain.
