New York Police Operations Manual:

A Cop Doc's Guide to Public Safety Complex Trauma Syndrome Daniel Rudofossi, Dale A Lund, 2017-07-05 Cop Doc's Guide to Public Safety Complex Trauma Syndrome is written in response to the need for an advanced specialized guide for clinicians to operationally define understand and responsibly treat complex post traumatic stress and grief syndromes in the context of the unique varieties of police personality styles The book continues where Rudofossi's first book Working with Traumatized Police Officer Patients left off Theory is wed to practice and practice to effective interventions with police officer patients The how and why of a clinician's approach is made highly effective by understanding the distinct personality styles of officer patients Rudofossi's theoretical approach segues into difficult examples that highlight each officer patient's ecological field experience of loss in trauma with a focus on enhancing resilience and motivation to otherwise left disenfranchised Thus this original work expands the ecological ethological existential analysis of complex PTSD into the context of personality styles with an emphasis on resilience without ignoring the pathological aspects of loss that often envelop officer patient trauma syndromes

Department of Transportation News ,1972-07 The Reinvention of Policing William R. Kelly,Daniel P.

Mears,2023-07-03 Written in an accessible style this book provides a historically grounded critique of American policing and offers implementable solutions providing students a comprehensive understanding of modern policing Contemporary policing is in crisis a situation that has led to persistent calls to reform it Unfortunately many proposed solutions focus on piecemeal changes that ignore a fundamental problem policing relies on a largely reactive approach that does not in any systematic or comprehensive way focus on crime prevention Most of what the police do such as responding to 911 calls for service and employing directed patrols or hot spots policing fails to address the causes of crime Compounding this problem is the absence of any institution or agency charged with prioritizing the prevention of crime and for ensuring that police efforts support this goal A central distinguishing feature of this book is its comprehensive approach and the emphasis on policing as part of a much broader set of changes that must occur both to improve policing and to improve public safety and justice This approach includes retaining what works eliminating what does not drawing on evidence based policy from around the world and creating systemic changes that institutionalize better policing accountability and evaluation processes for ensuring that

Video Yvonne Spielmann,2010-08-13 An argument that video is not merely an intermediate stage between analog and digital but a medium in its own right traces the theoretical genealogy of video and examines the different concepts of video seen in works by Vito Acconci Ulrike Rosenbach Steina and Woody Vasulka and others Video is an electronic medium dependent on the transfer of electronic signals Video signals are in constant movement circulating between camera and monitor This process of simultaneous production and reproduction makes video the most reflexive of media distinct from both photography and film in which the image or a sequence of images is central Because it is processual and not bound to recording and the appearance of a frame video shares properties with the computer In this book Yvonne Spielmann argues that video is not merely an intermediate stage between analog and digital but a medium in its own right Video has metamorphosed from technology to medium with a set of aesthetic languages that are specific to it and current critical debates on new media still need to recognize this Spielmann considers video as transformation imagery acknowledging the centrality in video of the transitions between images and the fact that these transitions are explicitly reflected in new processes After situating video in a genealogical model that demonstrates both its continuities and discontinuities with other media Spielmann considers three strands of video praxis documentary experimental art and experimental image making which is concerned primarily with signal processing She then discusses selected works by such artists as Vito Acconci Ulrike Rosenbach Joan Jonas Nam June Paik Peter Campus Dara Birnbaum Nan Hoover Lynn Hershman Gary Hill Steina and Woody Vasulka Bill Seaman and others These works serve to demonstrate the spectrum of possibilities in video as medium and point to connections with other forms of media Finally Spielmann discusses the potential of interactivity complexity and hybridization in the future of video as a medium
