A.I.D. Research Abstracts A.I.D. Reference Center,1980 Decentralisation, School-Based Management, and Quality Joseph Zajda,David T. Gamage,2009-08-21 This book which is the eighth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses in decentralisation school based management SBM and quality in education globally This book which focuses on decentralisation and SBM as a governance strategy in education presents theoretical aspects of the phenomenon of decentralisation privatisation and contextualises them within the education research literature It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information concerning the dynamics of decentralisation and SBM that normally take place when reforms are instituted to decentralize authority and power Above all the authors offering the latest findings regarding major discourses in decentralisation SBM and quality in educational systems in the global culture emphasise aspects of that dynamic interactive process see also Geo JaJa 2006a Gamage and Sooksomchitra 2006 Zajda 2009 This dynamic interaction in the process that is implicit in the title of the book is reified by calls for restructuring of schools following the idea that schools are not promoting human rights social cohesion and sustainable development The chapters as a source book of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in decentralisation and SBM in education contribute to the educational literature while enhancing the understanding of the larger dynamics involved in educational reform It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting decentralisation in education in the global culture

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 Preti Taneja, 2009-07-16 Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world Nelson Mandela Education for all is a goal that has been reaffirmed by states the world over many times in the last decade It is meant to be achieved by 2015 But as this book clearly shows a quality education is not reaching the world's most vulnerable communities minorities and indigenous peoples In Central Africa the great majority of indigenous Batwa and Baka have not had access even to primary education In South Asia Dalit girls are prevented from pursuing their education not just because of poverty but through discrimination and sexual violence In many countries in Europe Roma children continue to be placed in segregated classes or in special schools for those with learning disabilities just because of their ethnicity In Latin America millions of indigenous and African descendant children instead of being in school work in fields and plantations in the mines or at home In a unique collaboration with UNICEF Minority Rights Group International reports on what minority and indigenous children around the world face in their struggle to learn State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 profiles the programmes that are being developed to help them from better bilingual education to meeting the needs of nomadic populations giving examples of what works and why It describes efforts to overcome exclusion so that education is available accessible acceptable and adaptable for minorities and indigenous peoples and shows how far there is still to go It includes An analysis of available statistics that show that minorities and indigenous peoples are the most likely to suffer discrimination and exclusion in education worldwide First hand accounts of the difficulties and challenges facing minority and indigenous children in every major world region Coverage of the key issues for promoting the right to education including overcoming the double discrimination faced by minority and indigenous girls the need to collect data by ethnicity and the importance of bilingual or plurilingual education A unique statistical analysis and ranking of Peoples under Threat 2009 State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples is an invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the conditions facing minorities and indigenous peoples around the world

Nicaragua International Monetary Fund, 2010-05-06 This poverty reduction strategy paper on Nicaragua shows that the main obstacles to poverty reduction are related to culture historical and structural factors as well as weak public policy The lack of proper physical infrastructure the weaknesses in the energy matrix the flaws in the health education and potable water systems and the precarious presence of state institutions in the territory have all contributed to the lack of success in poverty reduction The country's potential in agriculture and natural resources are the main areas of opportunity regarding economic growth and poverty reduction
