attention to fiber arts redefining the conditions practices and products as art there is still much work to be done to deconstruct the stubborn patriarchal art craft binary With essays on a range of fiber art practices including embroidery knitting crocheting machine stitching rug making weaving and quilting this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly redefinition of women s relationship to creative activity Focusing on women as producers of cultural products and creators of social value the contributors treat women as active subjects and problematize their material practices and artifacts in the complex world of textiles Each essay also examines the ways in which needlework both performs gender and in turn constructs gender Moreover in concentrating on and theorizing material practices of textiles these essays reorient the study of fiber arts towards a focus on process the making of the object including the conditions under which it was made by whom and for what purpose as a way to rethink the fiber arts as social praxis Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie E.

Gries,2015-03-05 In Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie Gries forges connections among new materialism actor network theory and rhetoric to explore how images become rhetorically active in a digitally networked global environment Rather than study how an already materialized visual text functions within a specific context Gries investigates how images often circulate and transform across media genre and location at viral rates A four part case study of Shepard Fairey s now iconic Obama Hope image elucidates how images reassemble collective life as they actualize in different versions enter into various relations and spark a firework of activity across the globe While intent on tracking the rhetorical life of a single multiple image Still Life with Rhetoric is most concerned with studying rhetoric in motion To account for an image s widespread circulation and emergent activities Gries introduces iconographic tracking a digital research method for tracing an image s divergent rhetorical becomings Yet Gries also articulates a dynamic set of theoretical principles for studying rhetoric as a distributed generative and unforeseeable event that is applicable beyond the study of visual rhetoric With an eye toward futurity the strands of time beyond a thing s initial moment of production and delivery Still Life with Rhetoric intends to be taken up by those interested in visual rhetoric research methods and theory Prologue ,2002
