Negotiate This By Caring But Not T H A T Much:

Negotiate This! Herb Cohen, 2007-10-15 Master negotiator and New York Times bestselling author of You Can Negotiate Anything returns with this long awaited and essential guide to the art and practice of negotiation in the 21st century. As a result of his extensive negotiating experience and his unique presentation style, Herb Cohen is internationally renowned as someone who can quickly grasp both sides of an issue and get the most for his client out of a difficult negotiation. His advice is simple: says Herb, I care but not that much. In this new book and in his signature humorous and self-deprecating style, Herb Cohen explains how the reader can learn powerful yet subtle negotiating ploys to help them in their business career and even family relationships. As Herb says, Negotiation is the game of life. Ethical Challenges in Health Care Vicki D. Lachman, 2009-06-15 Designated a Doody's Core Title, Lachman successfully addresses the most important topics in health care ethics in this volume. The 20 chapters are divided logically and proceed onward from those dealing with the evolution of the philosophical basis for personal and organizational ethics. This text would be a highly useful resource for both undergraduate and graduate level health care ethics courses. Summing Up Recommended Choice This book is written for all healthcare professionals from those providing healthcare services to those administering healthcare organizations. It offers a detailed account of the concept of moral courage within the context of healthcare delivery and offers clarity and advice on numerous ethical problems. Doody's Stand up for what you believe in even if it means standing alone. Nelson Mandela. As a health professional or health care leader, have you ever had to address the problem of uninsured patients in your hospital? Had to deliver bad news to patients and families? Wanted to report an unethical colleague? If so, you need this book on your bookshelf. Health care managers and professionals face serious ethical dilemmas like these every day. This book provides the knowledge, insight, strategies, and encouragement necessary for developing moral courage in health care practice even in the face of adversity. Lachman outlines both personal and organizational strategies to help nurses, physicians, physical therapists, and health care leaders develop moral courage and face difficult ethical challenges in health care practice and management. Lachman presents numerous real-life case examples to illustrate skills and opportunities for developing moral courage in the workplace. Also included are tips for executives on how to develop their ethical leadership skills. Key Features Presents guidelines for developing moral courage for organization leaders as well as for individual practitioners. Discusses topics of critical concern to nurses and physicians, including patient autonomy, informed consent, and the importance of truth telling. Highlights pressing issues for health care leaders, including the uninsured in America, managing disruptive practitioners, and promoting patient safety. Includes guidelines for standing up and speaking out against unethical practices. Reiterates Key Points to Remember at the end of each chapter. Mergers & Acquisitions Dennis J. Roberts, 2009-01-23 This book was designed not only for owners and managers of middle market businesses but as a training text for middle market M&A investment bankers and consultants. It discusses the art and science of middle market M&A as well as the all important psychology and behind the scenes negotiations pursued with a particular emphasis on obtaining the absolute highest value when selling a business Subjects addressed include valuation taxation negotiations M A conventions among many others from the buy side and sell side perspectives Subtitled Tales of A Deal Junkie this serious but occasionally irreverent book tells it like it is including anecdotes to provide a feel for what really goes on in middle market transactions The author a former practicing CPA and a business valuation expert is a veteran M A investment banker with years of real life experience He also is a widely acclaimed instructor in the M A field and a nationally respected practitioner who has trained thousands of investment bankers No comparable book on the market today provides this degree of comprehensive and invaluable insight
