NHS plc Allyson M. Pollock, 2020-05-05 Universal comprehensive health care equally available to all and disconnected from income and the ability to pay was the goal of the founders of the National Health Service This book by one of the NHS's most eloquent and passionate defenders tells the story of how that ideal has been progressively eroded and how the clock is being turned back to pre NHS days when health care was a commodity fully available only to those with money How this has come about to the point where even the shrinking core of free NHS hospital services is being handed over to private providers at the taxpayers expense is still not widely understood hidden behind slogans like care in the community diversity and local ownership Allyson Pollock demystifies these terms and in doing so presents a clear and powerful analysis of the transition from a comprehensive and universal service to New Labour's mixed economy of health care in which hospitals with foundation status loosely supervised by an independent regulator will be run on largely market principles The NHS remains popular Pollock argues precisely because it created the freedom from fear that its founders promised and because its integrated non commercial character meant low costs and good medical practice Restoring these values in today's health service has become an urgent necessity and this book will be a key resource for everyone wishing to bring this about

The JSE Handbook, 1998 The Report: South Africa 2008, International Trade in Services

Olivier Cattaneo, Michael Engman, Sebastian Sez, Robert M. Stern, 2010-06-24 The services sector is key to economic growth competitiveness and poverty alleviation Comprising more than two thirds of the world economy services are now commonly traded across borders helped by technological progress and the increased mobility of persons In recent years a number of developing countries have looked at trade in services as a means to both respond to domestic supply shortages and to diversify and boost exports Any country can tap into the trade potential of services but not every country can become a services hub across sectors The opening of the services sector potentially comes with large benefits but also fears and costs that should not be overlooked This book provides useful guidelines for the assessment of a country s trade potential and a roadmap for successful opening and export promotion in select services sectors It looks at both the effects of increased imports and exports and provides concrete examples of developing country approaches that have either succeeded or failed to maximize the benefits and minimize the risks of opening It focuses on sectors that have been rarely analyzed through the trade lens and or have a fast growing trade potential for developing countries These sectors are accounting construction distribution engineering environmental health information technology and legal services This book is designed for non trade specialists to understand how trade can help improve access to key services in developing countries and for trade specialists to understand the specific characteristics of each individual sector It will be a useful tool for governments to design successful trade opening or promotion strategies and for the private sector and consumers to advocate sound domestic policy reforms accompanying an offensive trade agenda

Who is Nursing Them? It is Us Jennifer Zelnick, Charles Levenstein, Robert Forrant, John Wooding, 2017-07-05 This book explores the impacts of HIV AIDS and neoliberal globalization on the occupational health of public sector hospital nurses in KwaZulu Natal South Africa The story of South African public sector nurses provides multiple perspectives on the HIV AIDS epidemic for a workforce that played a role in the struggle against apartheid women who deal with the burden of HIV AIDS care at work and in the community and a constituency of the new South African democracy that is working on the frontlines of the HIV AIDS epidemic Through case studies of three provincial hospitals in KwaZulu Natal set against a historical backdrop this book tells the story of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the post apartheid period

McGregor's who Owns Whom in South Africa ,2001 Business History of Hospitals in the 20th Century Paloma Fernández Pérez, 2024-06-14 This book offers a business history of modern hospitals in the 20th century Presenting case studies from around the world it examines the long term institutional and historical evolution of hospital organization and management models applying a business history approach to do so Drawing on reports from international organizations and other historical data it explores the evolution path dependencies actors and institutions that have shaped the diversity of hospital organization and management models At the same time it analyzes the historical origins of major problems faced by today s hospitals such as cost inefficiencies lack of specialized human capital etc The contributing authors cover topics such as the history of hospital finance and accounting hospital price regulation entrepreneurship models hospital privatization and hospital governance The book will appeal to scholars and students of economic and business history and to anyone interested in the history of hospitals

African Nurse Pioneers in KwaZulu/Natal - 1920-2000 Mazo Sybil T. Buthelezi, 2004 This book is about seven African nurse pioneers in KwaZulu Natal from 1920 to 2000 The author captures the early nursing activities of the 1920s to 1970 and then moves to nurses that entered the health services in the 1950s The author also presents two nurses that worked outside South Africa i e did their pioneering nursing in Saudi Arabia and the United States of America The author does not scoop nursing out of its context but creates a narrative that resonates in lived experiences in a world dominated by the Africanization of poverty the feminization of poverty globalization racism and xenophobia

The Report: South Africa 2013 Oxford Business Group, 2013-09-04 The Rainbow Nation benefits from an internationally competitive private sector which accounts for roughly 70% of GDP and extremely competitive infrastructure its utility sector for example produces just under half of the total power generated on the African continent South Africa represents by far the most developed market in Africa but there are still some structural challenges it is grappling with Government strategies have set a target of increasing labour market participation from 54% in 2010 to 65% by 2030 bringing the number of workers in the formal sector to 25 3m people and lowering unemployment from 25% to 6% While its fiscal space is narrow long term investments in infrastructure education and health are expected to be key to attaining its growth potential Recent years have seen both the public and private sectors look to strengthen regulatory frameworks in mining and industry in some cases like the automotive sector with impressive results
