

Engineering Education Program (ESEP) - Fall 2019

For students interested in pursuing a degree in engineering

The Engineering Education Program (ESEP) is a two-year program that prepares students for a career in engineering. The program is designed for students who are interested in pursuing a degree in engineering and who want to gain hands-on experience in the field. The program includes a variety of courses, including mathematics, science, and engineering. Students will also have the opportunity to participate in internships and co-op programs.

The program is designed to provide students with a strong foundation in engineering principles and practices. Students will learn about the design process, the importance of safety, and the role of engineering in society. They will also develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills. The program is accredited by the American Society of Engineering Education (ASEE) and is recognized by the National Board of Engineering and Engineering Technology (NBET). Students who complete the program will be eligible to apply for a degree in engineering.
