Negotiating Gendered Identities At Work Place Space And Time:

Negotiating Gendered Identities at Work S. Halford, 2006-05-10 How does gendered organizational life impact on individuals identities in their everyday working lives This question is explored with theoretical insights from disciplines including Sociology Geography History and Gender Studies interwoven with a major new empirical study of doctors and nurses working in the British National Health Service Organizations, Communication, and Health Tyler R. Harrison, Elizabeth A. Williams, 2015-10-23 Organizations Communication and Health focuses on theories and constructs of organizational communication and their relationship to health The goal of the volume is to offer a current picture of organizational and organizing processes and practices related to health Research in the area of health communication has expanded in recent years and this research has advanced understandings of campaigns patient provider interactions and social support However a gap in the area of health organizations and organizing processes emerged a niche this volume fills It does so by having chapters identify an organizational theory or organizing process and how aspects of that theory relate to health Chapters discuss how to marry theory to practice and the other factors e g organizational structure role occupation industry or environment that need to be considered in the process of utilizing the theory in organizations This volume aimed at advanced undergraduate and graduate students studying health communication as well as health professionals provides useful theory and practice related the organizations and health and issues a call for further theorizing on the practice of health communication in organizations Men in Caring Occupations R. Simpson, 2009-01-15 Exploring how men in service and caring occupations cabin crew primary school teachers nurses and librarians both do and undo gender as they manage the potential mismatch between gender and occupational identity this book engages with the key theoretical concepts of identity visibility and emotions to examine men s experiences Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations Pauline Leonard, 2016-04-15 Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations offers a timely and contemporary discussion of the role of organizations in maintaining or challenging structures and cultures based on racism and discrimination It offers a key exploration of the relations between whiteness identity and organization in migratory contexts It delves into the experiences of expatriates in Hong Kong and the ways in which new identities are constructed in the destinations of migration by exploring the renegotiation of white identities and racialized relationships and the extent to which colonial imaginations still inform contemporary organizations By drawing on existing theoretical and empirical material on post colonialism identity making privileged migration relocation transnational work and organizations this volume brings disparate discussions together in a new and accessible way It will appeal to a range of sociology scholars as well as to those working in the fields of migration gender studies and cultural geography Gendered Journeys, Mobile Emotions Gillian Reynolds, 2016-04-22 It is increasingly acknowledged that an analysis of emotions is necessary to fully understand the social world and recent research on transport travel and mobilities has begun to consider the gendered nature of public and personal life in relation to this sphere The focus of this multidisciplinary and auto biographical volume is the emotional relationship that individuals and groups have with different means of travel Attention is given to a variety of travel experiences including travelling in trains planes cars buses and ships as well as biking cycling running and walking from the perspective of travellers and those who earn their living in assisting these experiences of others Imaginary travel and the relationships between art and travel are also considered Adopting innovative approaches to experiential material ranging from personal memories to empirical research Gendered Journeys Mobile Emotions opens up and illuminates an interdisciplinary debate about the gendered emotive and emotional nature of travelling Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé,2023-04-11

While the world often categorizes women in reductive false binaries careerist versus mother feminine versus fierce romance novels a unique form of the love story offer an imaginative space of mingled alternatives for a heroine on her journey to selfhood In Creating Identity Jayashree Kambl examines the romance genre with its sensile flexibility in retaining what audiences find desirable and discarding what is not by asking an important question Who is the romance heroine and what does she want To find the answer Kambl explores how heroines in ten novels reject societal labels and instead remake themselves on their own terms with their own agency Using a truly intersectional approach Kambl combines gender and sexuality Marxism critical race theory and literary criticism to survey various aspects of heroines identities such as sexuality gender work citizenship and race Ideal for readers interested in gender studies and literary criticism Creating Identity highlights a genre in which heroines do not accept that independence and strong loving relationships are mutually exclusive but instead demand both echoing the call from the very readers who have made this genre so popular Feminist

Interventions in International Communication Katharine Sarikakis,Leslie Regan Shade,2007-10-05 This cutting edge work critiques today s global mediascape through feminist perspectives highlighting concerns of policy power labor and technology Starting with the general state of international communications the book uses feminist political economic and policy analyses to explore the globalization of media industries including questions about women s employment and media content that is globally produced and consumed A top notch group of authors covers cases on online news pornography and explicit material political participation and democracy policies for women s development violence against women labor practices and information workers print media and publishing public telecentres media coverage of HIV AIDS and more Providing fresh feminist insights into international communication this essential book shows the important strides taken toward women s justice in these areas and how far there is yet to go Introduction to Gender Jennifer Marchbank,Gayle Letherby,2014-06-30

Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism Giles Melinda Vandenberg,2014-03-01 Neoliberal policies and austerity measures have unequivocally altered the landscape of women s lives globally The most detrimental effect has been on mothers as they are faced with increasing responsibility and decreasing resources Despite mothers being the primary producers consumers and reproducers of the neoliberal world their centrality has been largely silenced within economic discourse Thus Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism calls for a new economic framework to counter the individualized neoliberal model one in which the needs of mothers and children are prioritized This volume provides a crucial starting point By identifying the sources of neoliberal failure toward mothers we can begin to collectively formulate an alternative paradigm in which mothers voices are no longer rendered invisible but rather predominate in the global landscape

Challenging Entrepreneurship Research Hans Landstrom,Annaleena Parhankangas,Alain Fayolle,Philippe Riot,2016-06-10 The growth of entrepreneurship research has been accompanied by an increased convergence and institutionalization of the field In many ways this is of course positive but it also represents how the field has become mainstream with the concomitant risk that individual scholars become embedded in a culture and incentive system that emphasizes and rewards incremental research questions while reducing the incentives for scholars to conduct challenging research This book challenges this status quo from accepted theories methodologies and paradigmatic assumptions to the relevance or lack of for contemporary practice and the impact of key journals on scholars directions in entrepreneurship research An invited selection of the younger generation of scholars within the field of entrepreneurship research adopt a critical and constructive posture on what has been achieved in entrepreneurship research the main assumptions which underly it but also open up new paths for creative entrepreneurship research in the future This is a must read for all scholars educators and advanced students in entrepreneurship research

Work and Society Tim Strangleman, Tracey

Warren,2008-04-10 Work and Society is an important new text about the sociology of work and employment It provides both undergraduate and postgraduate students of sociology business and politics with a firm and enjoyable foundation to this fascinating area of sociology giving comprehensive coverage of traditional areas of the sub discipline as well as new trends and developments The book is divided into three complementary and interconnected sections investigating work work and social change and understanding work These sections allow readers to explore themes issues and approaches by examining how sociologists have thought about and researched work and how the sub discipline has been influenced by wider society itself Novel features include separate chapters on researching work domestic work unemployment and work and the representation of work in literary and visual media Feminist Theories and Concepts in Healthcare Kay

Aranda,2017-09-10 Feminist theories and research approaches are committed to generating relevant morally accountable knowledge and understanding as well promoting social and political change Through them we have the potential to understand more fully the urgent global health concerns that individuals families and communities face on a daily basis This unique text provides students across a range of health care disciplines with a clear and accessible introduction to feminist theory and conceptual frameworks as well as how to apply them to health specific issues With a particular focus on students own qualitative research activities each chapter guides the reader through challenging and sometimes highly contentious theories with clarity and eloquence and demonstrates the ways in which feminist theories and research approaches can be used to help analyse the wide range of contemporary issues encountered by health practitioners daily This is a fascinating read for health science research students and practising health professionals or indeed anyone wishing to learn more about feminist theories and concepts within health care Emotions Matter Dale Spencer,Kevin Walby,Alan Hunt,2012-03-07

The sociology of emotions has recently undergone a renaissance raising new questions for the social sciences How should we define and study emotions How are emotions related to perennial sociological debates about structure power and agency Emotions Matter brings together leading international scholars to build on and extend sociological understandings of emotions Moving beyond reductionist approaches that frame emotions as idiosyncratic states of mind the scholars in this collection conceptualize emotions as the experience of social relations Empirical and theoretical chapters demonstrate how emotions relate to sociological theories of interaction the body gender and communication Pushing the boundaries of sociology and stimulating debate for related fields Emotions Matter offers diverse relational approaches that illustrate the crucial importance of emotions to the sociological imagination Connecting Women's Histories Barbara Bush,June

Purvis,2018-10-19 Reflecting upon the diverse aspects of the entangled histories of women across the world mainly but not exclusively during the twentieth century this book explores the range of ways in which women s history international history transnational history and imperial and global histories are interwoven Contributors cover a diverse range of topics including the work of British women s activist networks in defence of and opposition to empire the Society for the Overseas Settlement of British Women suffrage networks in Britain and South Africa white Zimbabwean women and belonging in the diaspora migrant female workers as traditional agents in Tasmania Indian coolie women's lives in British Malaya Irish female medical missionary work emigration to North America from Irish women's convict prisons the Women's Party of Great Britain 1917 1919 the national and international in the making of the Finnish feminist Alexandra Gripenberg and the relationship between the World Congress of Mothers and the Japan Mothers Congress This book was originally published as a special issue of the Women's History Review

Creativity Policy, Partnerships and Practice in Education Kim Snepvangers, Pat Thomson, Anne Harris, 2018-10-31 This book examines the gaps in creativity education across the education lifespan and the resulting implications for creative education and economic policy Building on cutting edge international research the editors and contributors explore innovations in interdisciplinary creativities including STEM agendas and definitions science and creativity and organisational creativity amongst other subjects Central to the volume is the idea that good creative educational practice and policy advancement needs to reimagine individual contribution and possibilities whilst resisting standardization it is inherently risky not risk averse Prioritising creative partnerships zones of contact practice encounters and creative ecologies signal new modes of participatory engagement Unfortunately while primary schools continue to construct environments conducive to this kind of slow education secondary schools and education policy persistently do not This book argues from diverse viewpoints and methodological perspectives that 21st century creativity education must find a way to advance in a more integrated and less siloed manner in order to respond to pedagogical innovation economic imperatives and creative possibilities and adequately prepare students for creative practice workplaces and publics This innovative volume will appeal to students and scholars of creative practice as well as policy makers and practitioners

Organisational innovation in health services John Gabbay, Andrée le May, Catherine Pope, Glenn Robert, Paul Bate, Mary-Ann Elston, 2011-04-20 Amid a welter of simultaneous policy initiatives treatment centres were a top down NHS innovation that became subverted into a multiplicity of solutions to different local problems This highly readable account of how and why they evolved with completely unforeseen results reveals clear practical lessons based on case study research involving over 200 interviews Policy makers managers and clinicians undertaking any organisational innovation cannot afford to ignore these findings

Criminalized Mothers, Criminalizing Mothering Joanne Minaker, 2015-02-01 As the fastest growing prison population worldwide more and more women are living in cages and most of them are mothers This alarming trend has huge ramifications for women children and communities across the globe Empathy for mothers behind bars and concern for criminalized mothers in the community is in short supply Mothers are criminalized for their vulnerabilities and for making unpopular but difficult choices under material and ideological conditions not of their own choosing Criminalized Mothers Criminalizing Mothering shines a spotlight on mothers who are by law or social regulation criminalized and examines their troubles and triumphs This book offers a critical and compassionate lens on social in justice mass incarceration and collective miseries women experience i.e. economic inequality, gendered violence, devalued care work, lone parenting etc. This book is also about mothers' encounters with systems of control, confinement and criminalization but also their experiences of care.
