Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms Martyna Gliniecka, 2024-12-27 Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms focuses on young people's use of the digital platform Reddit for health Drawing upon dialogism theory the book explores how young people produce a youth led discourse of youth digital health different from the adult led framing represented in youth digital health research policy and service delivery Peer led discussions online remain one of the controversial forms of youth digital health associated with negative peer influence or casual teenage talk This book argues that online peer led dialogues support young people's agency in health and that young people can benefit from dealing with health issues with peers The work is based on the digital ethnography of teenagers subreddits on Reddit and utilises a theoretical framework of dialogism a linguistic based theory originated by an early 20th century Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin The book introduces the concept of dialogical youth led youth digital health discourse formed in the peer led space of Reddit This youth led discourse celebrates equality and diversity amongst people meanings and opinions It is constructed around three relational elements socio material affordances creative practices and a plurality of youth voices Reddit's pseudonymous anti authoritarian and egalitarian nature supports the emergence of this youth led discourse The book can interest scholars and lecturers in childhood and youth studies Internet studies and youth health studies Professionals such as policymakers service designers deliverers online safety educators and global youth and health agencies can use evidence based insights in their work with young people

Understanding Reddit Elliot T. Panek, 2021-12-24 This book offers a comprehensive scholarly overview of Reddit one of the most popular and least studied social platforms of the early 21st century The book inspires new ways of thinking about Reddit considering it from multiple perspectives through a historical lens as a site where identity is forged as a democracy as a community and as a news aggregator and distributor By bringing theories from computer mediated communication communication studies and sociology to bear on original large scale observational analyses of Reddit's communities this book provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the platform's first 15 years Understanding Reddit will help us make sense of how rapidly growing communities function in an era of mass online anonymity Serving both as a primer on how social behavior on Reddit plays out and as a way of locating it within multiple theoretical traditions the book will offer important insights to scholars and students in the disciplines of communication media studies information science internet and emerging media studies and sociology

Folklore and Social Media Andrew Peck,Trevor J. Blank,2020-12-07 Ten years after the publication of the foundational edited collection Folklore and the Internet Andrew Peck and Trevor J Blank bring an essential update of scholarship to the study of digital folklore Folklore and Social Media A unique virtual hybridized platform for human communication social media is more dynamic ubiquitous and nuanced than the internet ever was by itself and the majority of Americans use it to access and interact with digital source materials in more advanced and robust ways This book features twelve chapters ranging in topics from legend transmission and fake news to case studies of memes joke cycles and Twitter hashtag campaigns and offers fresh insights on digital heritage and web archiving The editors and contributors take both the digital and folklore elements seriously because social media fundamentally changes folk practices in new though often invisible ways Social media platforms encourage hybrid performances that appear informal and ordinary while also offering significant space to obfuscate backstage behaviors through editing and retakes The result is that expression online becomes increasingly reminiscent of traditional forms of face to face interaction while also hiding its fundamental differences Folklore and Social Media demonstrates various ways to refine methods and analyses in order to develop a better understanding of the informal and traditional dynamics that define an era of folklore and social media It is an invaluable addition to the literature on digital folklore scholarship that will be of interest to students and scholars alike Contributors Sheila Bock Peter M Broadwell Bill Ellis Jeana Jorgensen Liisi Laineste John Laudun Linda J Lee Lynne S McNeill Ryan M Milner Whitney Phillips Vwani Roychowdhury Timothy R Tangherlini Tok Thompson Elizabeth Tucker Kristiana Willsey
