

Reading Comprehension

Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Dog and the Shadow

It happened that a Dog had got a piece of meat and was carrying it home in his mouth to eat it in peace. Now on his way home, he had to cross a plank lying across a running brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own shadow reflected in the water beneath. Thinking it was another dog with another piece of meat, he made up his mind to have that also. So he made a snap at the shadow in the water, but as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was never seen more.

1. What animal was crossing a board?

2. What did the dog have in his mouth?

3. What did the dog see in the running brook?

4. What is the moral of the story?

Patrick Griffin, 2017-10-30 Grounded in contemporary evidence based research the second edition of Assessment for Teaching provides a comprehensive introduction to assessment and teaching in primary and secondary school settings Taking a practical approach to assessment and the collaborative use of data in the classroom this text advances a developmental model of assessment which aims to improve student outcomes through targeted teaching interventions Thoroughly revised and updated to include the latest research this edition features expanded content on collaborative teaching competence assessment learning and assessment and self regulated teaching and learning Each chapter features learning objectives reflective questions an extended exercise to link course content with classroom practice and end of chapter rubrics which help readers assess their own understanding and learning Written by a team of experts from the Assessment Research Centre at the University of Melbourne Assessment for Teaching 1ed Patrick Griffin, 2014-02-14 Assessment for Teaching is a comprehensive and practical introduction to assessment and learning in primary and secondary school settings This book treats assessment as a source of data that informs teaching strategies It replaces a deficit model of assessment with a development model a framework which recognises the importance of identifying what the student is ready to learn The book also promotes collaboration between teachers in professional learning teams encouraging the sharing of assessment data and team based interpretation to improve student outcomes and to plan goals for students based on a development scale Each chapter contains an exercise for applying the course content to classroom practice a response template for the exercise guidelines on assessing the value of the exercise in a professional learning team a short test for participants to cross check their understanding of the course content This is an essential resource for both pre service and in service teachers Let's Log In 10 (Revised Edition) , Raise Your GPA 1 Full Grade Edward Anhalt, 2003-01-13 Success in studying isn't difficult But one must first learn the secrets of how to study Why is it that every new teacher one inherits along the path to graduating high school has assumed that the teachers from the past grades have taught their students how to study They may have taught course content but not the way in which one learns the content Because of this students are working in ways that do not maximize their true potential Raise Your GPA 1 Full Grade helps create an even playing field for all learners The areas covered in this text are time management listening skills note taking reading for speed and comprehension writing with a purpose taking the fear out of examinations how to outline using mnemonics and how to use resources library Internet dictionary etc Raise Your GPA 1 Full Grade calls for no extra homework and is as easy to use as working your way around the Monopoly board and collecting 200 00 It s nice when someone learns they can succeed Let's Log In 9 (Revised Edition) ,

Challenges and Channels Ikram Ahmed Ibrahim Elsherif,Piers Michael Smith,2016-06-22 This book deals with the challenges of teaching the English language and literature in the Middle East and North Africa region with a special focus on the Gulf countries It consists of different articles by an international group of educators and scholars who have first hand experience in teaching the English language and its literatures in this region The contributors not only investigate student attitudes cultural political and administrative obstacles and challenges but they also embark upon soul searching journeys in which they examine their own attitudes teaching strategies cultural prejudices and preconceptions and personal responses to their teaching environments They also explore from their own personal experiences the crisis in the humanities cultural hegemony ethics in translation cross cultural encounters pedagogical challenges textuality and second language acquisition among other issues and concerns As such the book represents both a scholarly investigation and a colorful palette of personal experience and response to human encounters in the classroom Fachenglisch für Laborberufe Steven L.
