You've probably seen people's subscription counts explode, views stream in, and comments overflow their videos as they make thousands of dollars using the site. But here's the catch: A large portion of them aren't even speaking with their own voices or revealing their identities. This may seem paradoxical, especially if you've been led to believe that your unique voice and charisma are crucial to your success in the content creation industry. What if, however, we told you that you can build a successful YouTube channel even if you don't want to be the channel's face? Think of your YouTube experience if you didn't have to worry about being camera-shy, having the right lighting, or being the center of attention.
