Intimate Friends Karen Marie, 2017-03-24 Haley Martin has suffered a huge personal loss with the death of her father and the surprise information he gave her. She does not cope with it all very well and develops a strained relationship with her mother. She lives in LA and manages to fail her first job as a police officer due to her alcoholism which served as a coping mechanism. To clear her head Haley decides to take a vacation and travels to Louisiana. While visiting Louisianas sites she meets the love of her life Theodore Stockley. She begins to remember how good it felt to laugh and starts to enjoy life again. Theo is a mysterious but wealthy and influential man in Louisiana. Louisiana and Theo seemed to be what she needs to jumpstart her life back into gear. Having found what she thought was true love Haley feels inspired and opens up a detective agency only to find out that Theo is unable to commit to one woman. After experiencing the frustration and disappointment of her relationship Haley returns to LA and dives into a trail of lovers while trying to keep her business afloat. Her detective agency opens up a new and different episode of her life and leads her to meet some unsavory characters with a new case that she acquires. The leads of the case are exciting but this causes her to travel down some roads that she is not quite sure she should have followed.
