Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen, 2002-12 The Early Years of Mind Lukas M. Verburgt, 2025 Ever since its establishment Mind has been one of the world's leading philosophy journals This is the first work to study its origins development and influence in the first few decades of its existence Founded in 1876 by Alexander Bain it soon became an organ for some of the best new work in English language philosophy and psychology with contributions from once important but today forgotten thinkers e g Edmund Montgomery E E Constance Jones as well as emergent now famous figures e g William James Bertrand Russell Bringing together a diverse team of scholars the volume shows how at a time when the scientific status of and relation between philosophy and psychology was not yet settled Mind helped define these fields in a way we still recognize them today As such The Early Years of Mind is essential reading for anyone interested in a neglected yet crucial period of the history of philosophy A Rebel's History of Mars Nadia Afifi, 2025-06-10 Rocky Mountain Fiction Writer member's striking new book of time travel and biological science fiction is a thrilling ride Kezza an aerialist in the Martian circus can never return to Earth but she can assassinate the man she blames for her grim life on the red planet Her murderous plans take an unexpected turn however when she uncovers a sinister secret A thousand years into the future Azad lives a safe but controlled life on the beautiful desert planet of Nabatea His world is upended when he joins a crew of space traveling historians seeking to learn the true reason that their ancestors left Mars Separated by time and space Kezza and Azad's stories collide in the Martian desert
