Nonfiction Comprehension

During the United States Civil War, the Northern states and Southern states fought each other. While there were many reasons for the war, it was partly fought over a disagreement between the states on the legal practice of enslaving/black people. One famous battle was fought at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. In this battle, the North won, though both sides suffered many losses. In the fall of 1863, President Lincoln called the site of the battle and gave the Gettysburg Address, which is one of the most famous speeches ever given.

What does the word "disagreement" mean?
