Sacred Snaps Roman R. Williams, Catherine Holtmann, William L. Sachs, 2024-11-25. Sacred Snaps tells the story of a new approach to interfaith engagement. It is an invitation to see and engage religion, diversity and inclusion through the lens of the mobile phone camera. These days just about everyone owns a camera equipped cell phone. What if we recruited these cameras for the common good? When religion shows up in everyday life at work, school, the mall or the beach, often it is not welcome. At a time when so much of the public discourse is around equity, diversity and inclusion, religion seems peripheral to the conversation. Many embrace the wisdom that our workplaces, schools and communities are enhanced when people can bring their whole selves into every aspect of their daily lives. But religion and spirituality are not gaining the same ground as other aspects of diversity such as race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality and ability. To be more fully included in the cultural conversation about human flourishing, religion needs to be seen and heard in new ways. The old paradigm of interreligious dialogue is no longer adequate. A new paradigm focused on building relationships at the grass roots of daily life is emerging. This cutting edge volume brings together Christians and Muslims in the United States and Canada to explore what their beliefs, practices and values look like in everyday life.
