ELT Revisited Marcela Malá, Zuzana Šaffková, 2016-08-17 This volume brings together selected papers presented during the 9th International Conference of the Association of Czech Teachers of English titled Teaching for Tomorrow and hosted by the English Department of the Faculty of Science Humanities and Education at the Technical University of Liberec Czech Republic The conference brought together English Language Teaching ELT professionals from primary secondary and tertiary education to discuss a variety of English as a Foreign Language EFL related topics ranging from reports on language research to viewpoints and insights on classroom practice The contributions are grouped into three sections a Focus on Selected Language Topics b Increasing Learner Autonomy and c Innovative Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL ideas

Papers were carefully chosen in order to appeal to a broad audience. Consequently there are articles which have a mainly theoretical bent and those which have a more practical leaning. Although the conference was hosted in the Czech Republic and the majority of participants were from this country the book is relevant to any context where English is taught as a foreign or second language. Therefore teachers, advanced students of English language researchers and indeed anyone engaged in the EFL profession will find this collection both educational and thought provoking.

Teachers' Perceptions, Experience and Learning Woon Chia Liu, Christine C.M. Goh, 2019-12-18

Teachers' Perceptions, Experience and Learning offers insightful views on the understanding of the role of teachers and the impact of their thinking and practice. The articles presented in this book illustrate the influence of teachers on student learning, school culture and their own professional identity and growth as well as highlighting challenges and constraints in pre and in service teacher education programmes that can impact teachers' own learning. The first article examined teacher experiences in the use of design thinking by Retna N. S. Hong and Young's article looks into contradictory effects of the new national curriculum in South Korea. Lu Wang, Ma Clarke and Collins explored Chinese teachers' commitment to being a cooperating teacher for rural practicum placements. Kainzbauer and Hunt investigate foreign university teachers' experiences and perceptions in teaching graduate schools in Thailand. On inclusive education in Singapore, Yeo Chong Neihart and Huan examined teachers' first hand experiences with inclusion while Poon Ng Wong and Kaur study teachers' perceptions of factors associated with inclusive education. The book ends with two articles on teacher preparation by Hardman, Stoff, Aung and Elliott who examined the pedagogical practices of mathematics teaching in primary schools in Myanmar and Zein who focuses on teacher learning by examining the adequacy of preservice education in Indonesia for preparing primary school English teachers. The contributing authors' rich perspectives in different educational, geographical and socio-cultural contexts would serve as a valuable resource for policy makers, educational leaders, individual researchers and practitioners who are involved in teacher education research and policy. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Education.

Handbook of Reading Assessment Sherry Mee Bell, R. Steve McCallum, 2015-07-30

The Handbook of Reading Assessment, Second Edition, covers the wide range of reading assessments educators must be able to use and understand to effectively assess and instruct their students. Comprehensive and filled with numerous authentic examples, the text addresses informal classroom-based assessment, progress monitoring, individual norm-referenced assessment and group norm-referenced or high stakes testing. Coverage includes assessment content relevant for English language learners and adults. A set of test guidelines to use when selecting or evaluating an assessment tool is provided. New and updated in the Second Edition: Impact on reading assessment of Common Core Standards for literacy; increased top-down focus on accountability and high stakes tests; innovations in computerized assessment of reading; latest developments in Response to Intervention (RTI) model, particularly as they impact reading assessment.
