McGill,Kirsty V. Pitkin,2025-03-15 Multiple jurisdictions have been and continue to converge their taxation frameworks to eradicate cross border tax evasion and establish common principles under which non resident financial institutions can become withholding agents for non resident investors and establish rules to prevent and detect cross border tax evasion The US began this convergence with its Qualified Intermediary agreement framework in 2001 with Revenue Procedure 2000 12 the QI

Agreement Ireland followed the US model with its Qualified Intermediary and Authorised Withholding Agent AWA program and Japan has adopted a Qualified Foreign Intermediary QFI system More recently in 2023 the European Commission proposed a new Directive for standardisation and simplification of cross border withholding tax across 27 Member States FASTER Once agreed upon the Directive is expected to go into force on January 1 2030 All these frameworks have a commonality of purpose and in many cases commonality of implementation principles Differences lie in the practical implementation of these frameworks by financial institutions who may have to adopt different procedures and policies depending on the nature and residency of their clients and the markets in which they choose to invest This book will be of interest to financial services professionals and institutional investors including custodians and brokers CPA Tax USA

David R. Agrawal,James M. Poterba,Owen M. Zidar,2025-10-29 A critical examination of the effects of tax competition Policy Responses to Tax Competition provides an in depth exploration of how jurisdictions design taxes on mobile economic factors Tax competition between jurisdictions that seek to attract businesses and residents presents both opportunities and challenges It can foster government efficiency and provide a counterweight to lobbying for increased spending but it can also result in inefficiently low tax rates and revenue shortfalls as jurisdictions vie for tax bases This volume examines the economic drivers and consequences of tax competition and presents empirical evidence on its effects Divided into three parts the book first reviews existing research on the determinants and consequences of tax competition and related policy initiatives such as development incentives The second section focuses on specific policies such as the Kansas Missouri noncompete pact and international measures like the OECD s Base Erosion and Profit Shifting initiative that are designed to limit tax competition It also considers the economic responses to these policies the distributional impact of competition reducing policies and potential strategic reactions of other governments The final section presents case studies of the effects of various policies including inter municipal cooperation in France and corporate tax equalization in Switzerland Altogether this volume provides new insights into the nature of inter jurisdictional tax competition and the range of potential responses available to jurisdictions at various levels in federal systems
