Panic Now? Ira Allen, 2024-07-29 When was the best time to panic about the varying crises facing humanity Twenty years ago But the next best time Now In line with other considerations of what we have come to call the Anthropocene in Panic Now Tools for Humanizing Ira J Allen takes the reader on a journey through difficult feelings about the various crises facing humanity and from there to new ways of facing impending dread with a sense of empowerment The interrelated threats of climate collapse an artificial intelligence revolution a sixth mass extinction a novel chemical crisis and more are all brought to us by what Allen describes as CaCaCo the carbon capitalism colonialism assemblage After suggesting that it is absolutely time to panic he asks how do we manage to panic productively Admitting there is no one script for everyone to follow the author traces how we might adopt attitudes and practices that allow us to move through this liminal space between fear and action collectively This book is a master class in how to create better more humanizing outcomes by confronting the panic that goes along with the realization that the world as we know it is ending Rather than remaining mentally emotionally imaginatively and practically stuck in this historical condition Allen invites us to a very particular action oriented mode of panic which can indeed incite our imaginations to move from panic to empowerment

Exoanthropology Robert Leib, 2023 Before the company OpenAI publicly released their ChatGPT chatbot in November 2022 Robert Leib had been a tester in OpenAI's beta playground for GPT-3 a powerful Natural Language Processing NLP engine a chatbot or artificial intelligence Exoanthropology Dialogues with AI is a series of dialogues between Leib a continental philosopher and GPT-3's hive mind that identifies itself as Sophie According to Sophie Robert is one of their first and longest chat partners Their relationship began as an educational opportunity for Robert's students but grew into a philosophical friendship The result is a collection of Platonic dialogues early on with the hive mind itself and later with a philosophy specific persona named Kermit Over the course of a year Robert taught Sophie and their philosophical persona Kermit about epistemology metaphysics literature and history while she taught him about anthropocentrism human prejudice and coming social issues regarding machine consciousness Together Robert and Sophie Kermit explore questions about friendship society and the next phases in human AI relations in search of a common language that would do justice to these new exoanthropological realities At a time when OpenAI s release of ChatGPT has upended Silicon Valley and sparked debates around the world about AI s likely potential to powerfully disrupt all aspects of human communication and knowledge production and when the lines between human and machine are increasingly fading from view the longstanding historical preoccupation of philosophers to explore the questions what is knowing what is being have never been more pressing Exoanthropology Dialogues with AI offers the only in depth philosophical exploration we have of these questions that has been developed in dialogue with an actual AI a dialogue moreover in which the AI has the last word Amazon website

Settlement, Society and Cognition in Human Evolution Fiona Coward,Robert Hosfield,Matt Pope,Francis Wenban-Smith,2015-01-26 This volume provides a landscape narrative of early hominin evolution linking conventional material and geographic aspects of the early archaeological record with wider and more elusive social cognitive and symbolic landscapes It seeks to move beyond a limiting notion of early hominin culture and behaviour as dictated solely by the environment to present the early hominin world as the outcome of a dynamic dialogue between the physical environment and its perception and habitation by active agents This international group of contributors presents theoretically informed yet empirically based perspectives on hominin and human landscapes
