of Boiardo and Ariosto Jo Ann Cavallo, 2013-10-28 This study offers a sustained examination of the presentation of eastern Asia the Middle East and northern Africa in two of the most important chivalric epics of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Matteo Maria Boiardo's Orlando Innamorato 1495 and Ludovico Ariosto's Orlando Furioso 1516 Comparing the narratological strategies used to depict non European characters in these stories Jo Ann Cavallo argues that Boiardo's cosmopolitan vision of humankind increasingly became replaced by Ariosto's crusading ideology which emphasized a binary opposition between Christians and Saracens Cavallo addresses the poems mixing of imaginary sites and the geographical reality of a rapidly expanding globe contextualizing them against current events and concerns as well as ancient medieval and Renaissance texts influential at the time As the prize committee for the Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies noted This articulate engaging and well documented study represents an important work of scholarship in its cross cultural considerations of Italian Renaissance epic poetry Wicked Rush (Club Altura Romance

The Princess Athura A Romance of Iran Samuel W. Odell,2022-07-15 Excerpt It was morning on the plains of Asia Long legged herons stood in the shallows of the yellow Jaxartes bathing their feet in its sluggish flood and warming their bodies in the first rays of the sun They were silently and uneasily watching a host of armed men drawn out in long battle lines across the lowlands bordering the southern margin of the stream Where the armed host stood was a sandy plain about two miles wide Beyond this was a low range of sand hills which trended away to the southeast enlarging the plain as they receded from the river Cutting through hills and plain to join the river bed was a dry water course where in winters only a torrent flowed In it were some stunted trees and scattered thickets of shrubs To the north of the river was a vast plain on which the dry yellow grass had been withered by summer sun and wind Far in the east appeared dimly through a blue haze the summits of high mountains Westward the river had yet to flow half its length to the Oxian swamps Here it was wide and shallow and its banks were low and marshy The rays of the sun sparkled on the brazen breastplates and shining blades of battle axes on the spear points and gilded helmets of two hundred thousand men who here awaited the approach of a far more numerous host coming down from the east along the river towards them The light rested softly upon the stern bearded faces of veterans of many wars and the softer cheeks of young men on this their first campaign They were men of Iran for the most part though some were Assyrians Babylonians Arabs Hebrews or Greeks from the Ionian cities They were followers of Cyrus the King of Kings the Great King ever victorious Lord of the World Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1946 Pleasurable
