Billard, Silvio Waisbord, 2024-03-26 Prometheus brought the gift of enlightenment to humanity and suffered for his benevolence This collection takes on scholars Promethean view of themselves as selfless bringers of light and instead offers a new vision of public scholarship as service to society Thomas J Billard and Silvio Waisbord curate essays from a wide range of specialties within the study of communication Aimed at scholars and students alike the contributors use approaches from critical meditations to case studies to how to guides as they explore the possibilities of seeing shared knowledge not as a gift to be granted but as an imperative urging readers to address the problems of the world Throughout the volume the works show that a pivot to ideas of scholarship as public service is already underway in corners of communication studies across the country Visionary and provocative Public Scholarship in Communication Studies proposes a needed reconsideration of knowledge and a roadmap to its integration with community Contributors Elaine Almeida Becca Beets Thomas J Billard Danielle K Brown Aymar Jean Christian Stacey L Connaughton Paula Gardner Larry Gross Amy Jordan Daniel Kreiss Rachel Kuo Susan Mancino Shannon C McGregor Philip M Napoli Todd P Newman Srividya Ramasubramanian Chad Raphael Sue Robinson Silvio Waisbord Yidong Wang and Holley Wilkin Medical Education and Ethics: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-09-27 As the healthcare industry continues to expand a higher volume of new professionals must be integrated into the field Providing these professionals with a quality education will likewise ensure the further progress and advancements in the medical field Medical Education and Ethics Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications presents a compendium of contemporary research on the educational practices and ethical considerations in the medical industry This multi volume work contains pedagogical frameworks emerging trends case studies and technological innovations essential for optimizing medical education initiatives This comprehensive publication is a pivotal resource for medical professionals upper level students researchers and practitioners Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1927 The Educational Weekly, 1884 Teacher Education: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-05-19 Educators play a significant role in the intellectual and social development of children and young adults Next generation teachers can only be as strong as their own educational foundation which serves to cultivate their knowledge of the learning process uncover best practices in the field of education and employ leadership abilities that will inspire students of all ages Teacher Education Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications explores the current state of pre service teacher programs as well as continuing education initiatives for in service educators Emphasizing the growing role of technology in teacher skill development and training as well as key teaching methods and pedagogical developments this multi volume work compiles research essential to higher education professionals and administrators educational software developers and researchers studying pre service and in service teacher training Sidewalk City Annette Miae Kim, 2015-05-27 For most the term public space conjures up images of large open areas community centers for meetings and social events the ancient Greek agora for political debates green parks for festivals and recreation In many of the world's major cities however public spaces like these are not a part of the everyday lives of the public Rather business and social lives have always been conducted along main roads and sidewalks With increasing urban growth and density primarily from migration and immigration rights to the sidewalk are being hotly contested among pedestrians street vendors property owners tourists and governments around the world With Sidewalk City Annette Miao Kim provides the first multidisciplinary case study of sidewalks in a distinctive geographical area She focuses on Ho Chi Minh City Vietnam a rapidly growing and evolving city that throughout its history her multicultural residents have built up alternative legitimacies and norms about how the sidewalk should be used Based on fieldwork over 15 years Kim developed methods of spatial ethnography to overcome habitual seeing and recorded both the spatial patterns and the social relations of how the city's vibrant sidewalk life is practiced In Sidewalk City she transforms this data into an imaginative array of maps progressing through a primer of critical cartography to unveil new insights about the importance and potential of this quotidian public space This richly illustrated and fascinating study of Ho Chi Minh City's sidewalks shows us that it is possible to have an aesthetic sidewalk life that is inclusive of multiple publics aspirations and livelihoods particularly those of migrant vendors

Mobile-Mindful Teaching and Learning Christina Moore, 2023-07-03 This book provides faculty and instructors with an introductory guide to integrating mobile learning in their courses Recognizing that a smartphone is the first and main piece of technology anyone owns with ownership exceeding 95% for those aged 18-29 with a sizable minority of these being smartphone dependent and that instructors are relying on technology for teaching and learning more than ever this book addresses the imperative that course materials and interactions be increasingly available through the technology that students use most often Dispelling the notion that mobile learning is for the tech savvy and adventurous mobile mindful teaching offers teachers a way to take a few steps at a time share options with students and progressively develop ideas and practices The book invites you to explore your own way into mobile learning Christina Moore stresses two principles as you engage with mobile learning intention and fluidity This begins with mindfully implementing mobile learning opportunities so that students see the usefulness of learning via phone and recognizing the fluid learning environments in which students learn so you can offer online modalities and functions appropriate to purpose and situations The book opens with a start with self section on How to Be a Mobile Mindful Learner offering ideas on exploring the almost infinite available online resources in your discipline to curate a rich and ever expanding compilation of ideas for use in your scholarly work and teaching and identifying different types of learning digital reading audio and visual learning and social learning across multiple devices and contexts to consider as you develop your course The section Toward Mobile Mindful Teaching explores ways to add mobile options to existing learning materials and how they and the LMS functions you use are rendered on a phone by taking a mobile test drive through your course Christina Moore shows how by building up your mobile learning skills to be a more productive scholar and developing habits that feed your curiosity and creativity you can start planning how you can create fluid learning opportunities for your students they can access across devices time and space and take advantage of found moments of time and informal spaces
