This course is designed to explore the ways music enriches our lives. Through listening, performing, creating, and moving to music, students investigate the many ways humans express themselves through the language of music.

Using the textbook series "Alfred's Essentials of Music Theory" students will gain a basic understanding of music theory (how to identify and write basic music notation). This will provide a foundation for the student's understanding of music in various cultures from around the world. Music theory will encompass 75% of the class time.

By using various audio and visual recordings taken from different regions of the world, students will get a crash course on world music, and how it has influenced popular music today. Students will gain an appreciation for music rooted in different world cultures. They will develop tolerance and respect for various cultures, and gain an understanding of music as a universal language. This will encompass 25% of class time.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Please refer to the Student Handbook for specific information on attendance under the "Attendance Policy" Section R5200.

If a student is in school the day they were absent from this class, they will be marked down as cutting unless a note is presented from a parent or teacher regarding the absence. If you know you need to make up a test in another class for any reason, ask the teacher to please call the orchestra room at extension 3144.

MAKEUP ASSIGNMENTS/TESTS:

Every student is entitled to obtaining potential full credit for work received during a date of absence with an excuse note. Upon returning to school following an absence, it is the student's responsibility to contact the teacher to request make-up work. The student must
