Migration And Christian Identity In Congo Drc Studies Of Religion In Africa:

Migration and Christian Identity in Congo (DRC) Emma Wild-Wood, 2008 Christianity and migration have greatly influenced society and culture of sub Saharan Africa yet their mutual impact is rarely studied Through oral history research in north eastern Congo DRC this book studies the migration of Anglicans and the subsequent reconfiguring of their Christian identity It engages with issues of religious contextualisation revivalism and the rise of Pentecostalism It examines shifting ethnic national gender and generational expressions the influence of tradition contemporaneity local needs and international networks to reveal mobile group identities developing through migration Borrowing the metaphor of home from those interviewed the book suggests in what ways religious affiliation aids a process of belonging The result is an original exploration of important themes in an often neglected region of Africa

Communities of Faith in Africa and the African Diaspora Casely B. Essamuah, David K. Ngaruiya, 2014-01-13 Communities of Faith is a collection of essays on the multicultural Christian spirit and practices of churches around the world with particular attention to Africa and the African diaspora The essays span history theology anthropology ecumenism and missiology Readers will be treated to fresh perspectives on African Pentecostal higher education Pentecostalism and witchcraft in East Africa Methodist camp meetings in Ghana Ghanaian diaspora missions in Europe and North America gender roles in South African Christian communities HIV AIDS ministries in Uganda Japanese funerary rites enculturation and contextualization principles of mission and many other aspects of the Christian world mission With essays from well known scholars as well as young and emerging men and women in academia Communities of Faith illuminates current realities of world Christianity and contributes to the scholarship of today's worldwide Christian witness

Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B. Chewachong, 2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria's Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel's transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within
