marooned in a perpetual time warp or reduced to a refuge for the retired wealthy urbanites extreme nature lovers and more recently anyone tired of waiting out the pandemic in towns and cities It poses two simple questions what does the word rural mean today What will it mean tomorrow The author is an ambivalent native held captive to the land by an umbilical cord but always on the verge of fleeing home to the city She writes from a feminist postcolonial standpoint that is alert to the slow violence of historical processes taking place over many centuries enslavement colonialism industrialisation globalisation Both argument and narrative are propelled by the urgent need to reconsider the concept of countryside in the context of the climate emergency and the patent collapse of ecosystems due to intensive farming which has poisoned the land
