Goodreads Choice Review:

Online Searching Karen Markey, 2023-02-07 Online Searching prepares students in library and information science programs to assist information seekers at all levels from university faculty to elementary school students. Included in the third edition are interviews with librarians and other information professionals whose words of wisdom broaden graduate students' perspectives regarding online searching in a variety of work settings serving different kinds of information seekers. The book's chapters are organized according to the steps in the search process: 1 Conducting a reference interview to determine what the seeker wants; 2 Identifying sources that are likely to produce relevant information for the seeker's query; 3 Determining whether the user seeks a known item or information about a subject; 4 Dividing the query into main ideas and combining them logically; 5 Representing the query as input to the search system; 6 Conducting the search and responding strategically; 7 Displaying retrievals, assessing them, and responding tactically. A new chapter on web search engines builds on students' existing experience with keyword searching and relevance ranking by introducing them to more sophisticated techniques to use in the search box and on the results page. A completely revised chapter on assessing research impact discusses the widespread use of author and article iMetrics, a trend that has developed rapidly since the publication of the second edition. More than 100 figures and tables provide readers with visualizations of concepts and examples of real searches and actual results. Textboxes offer additional topical details and professional insights. New videos supplement the text by delving more deeply into topics such as database types, information organization, specialized search techniques, results filtering, and the role of browsing in the information seeking process. An updated glossary makes it easy to find definitions of terms used throughout the book. With new and updated material, this edition of Online Searching gives students knowledge and skills for success when intermediating between information seekers and the sources they need.

Young Adult Resources Today
Don Latham, Melissa Gross, 2014-05-21 Young Adult Resources Today: Connecting Teens with Books, Music, Games, Movies, and More is the first comprehensive young adult library services textbook specifically written for today's multidimensional information landscape. The authors integrate a research-focused information behavior approach with a literature-focused resources approach and bring together in one volume key issues related to research theory and practice in the provision of information services to young adults. Currently, no single book addresses both YA information behaviors and information resources in any detail; instead, books tend to focus on one and give only cursory attention to the other. Key features of this revolutionary book include its success in integrating theory, research, and practice; integrating implications for practice throughout the book; integrating knowledge of resources with professional practice as informed by research; integrating both print and electronic formats throughout within the resource chapters, including websites and social media. Latham and Gross accomplish all this while paying particular attention to the socially constructed nature of young adulthood, diversity, YA development, and multiple literacies. Their coverage of information landscapes covers literature with detailed coverage of both genres and subgenres movies magazines web sites social media and gaming The final chapter cover navigating information landscapes focusing on real and virtual YA spaces readers advisory programming and collaboration Special attention is paid to program planning and evaluation

A Fever in the Heartland Timothy Egan, 2024-06-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A Washington Post Notable Work of Nonfiction An NPR Best Book of the Year A Kirkus Reviews Best Book of the Year A Chicago Review of Books Best Book of the Year A New York Public Library Best Book of the Year A Goodreads Choice Awards Finalist With narrative elan Egan gives us a riveting saga of how a predatory con man became one of the most powerful people in 1920s America Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan with a plan to rule the country and how a grisly murder of a woman brought him down Compelling and chillingly resonant with our own time Erik Larson author of The Splendid and the Vile Riveting Egan is a brilliant researcher and lucid writer Minneapolis Star Tribune A historical thriller by the Pulitzer and National Book Award winning author that tells the riveting story of the Klan's rise to power in the 1920s the cunning con man who drove that rise and the woman who stopped them The Roaring Twenties the Jazz Age has been characterized as a time of Gatsby frivolity But it was also the height of the uniquely American hate group the Ku Klux Klan Their domain was not the old Confederacy but the Heartland and the West They hated Blacks Jews Catholics and immigrants in equal measure and took radical steps to keep these people from the American promise And the man who set in motion their takeover of great swaths of America was a charismatic charlatan named D C Stephenson Stephenson was a magnetic presence whose life story changed with every telling Within two years of his arrival in Indiana he'd become the Grand Dragon of the state and the architect of the strategy that brought the group out of the shadows their message endorsed from the pulpits of local churches spread at family picnics and town celebrations Judges prosecutors ministers governors and senators across the country all proudly proclaimed their membership But at the peak of his influence it was a seemingly powerless woman Madge Oberholtzer who would reveal his secret cruelties and whose deathbed testimony finally brought the Klan to their knees A FEVER IN THE HEARTLAND marries a propulsive drama to a powerful and page turning reckoning with one of the darkest threads in American history uncertain about spending a week at the sprawling country estate of the family of her sister's boyfriend. For starters, she doesn't get along with her sister. Then there's the fact his family is old wealthy aristocracy and Daphne's from brash new American money. Mostly it's that everyone knows Duncroft House is haunted by the ghost of a 1920s film star who died there. Deemed an accident for nearly a century, people are sure it was murder. Daphne doesn't like scary things, say haunted houses. She likes it less when strange things start happening to her when she arrives. But she finds she has a surprising ally. Ian Alcott, the heir to the earldom, is rich, gorgeous, and just as concerned about the frightening things that keep befalling Daphne at his ancestral family home. As he moves to protect her, Daphne finds he's also funny, kind, and sexy as hell. Indeed, he just might be too good to be true.

Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer Petra Broomans, Mathijs Sanders, Jeanette den Toonder, Elise Bijl, 2022-02-05. Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer addresses the multilevel nature of literary and translation prizes with the aim of expanding our knowledge about them as an international and transnational phenomenon. The contributions to this book analyse the social, institutional, and ideological functions of such prizes. This volume not only looks at famous prizes and celebrities but also lesser-known prizes in more peripheral language areas and regions, with a special focus on cultural transmitters and their networks, which play a decisive role in the award industry. Cultural transfer and translations are at the heart of this book, and this approach adds a new dimension to the study of literary and translation prizes. The contributions reveal the diverse ways in which a cultural transfer approach enhances the study of literary prizes, presenting the state of the art regarding recent developments in the field. Articles with a broader scope discuss definitions, concepts, and methods, while other contributions deal with specific case studies. A variety of theoretical and methodological approaches are explored, applying field theory, network analysis, comparative literature, and cultural transfer studies. By providing multiple perspectives on the literary prize, this volume aims to contribute to our knowledge and understanding of this intriguing phenomenon.

The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24. The Mother of All Booklists: The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents, grandparents, and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists. This book is a long-overdue composite of all the major booklists. It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines, newspapers, reference books, schools, libraries, parenting organizations, and professional groups from across the country. The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies: the ultimate one-stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best. Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics. Organized into five age-group lists, each with one hundred books: preschoolers (ages 3-5), early readers (ages 5-9), middle readers (ages 9-13), young adults (ages 13-17), and adults (ages 18+). The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States, including a few from Canada and Great Britain. Each of the 500 books is annotated, describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important. Each includes a picture of the book cover.
