Orange Is The New Black :

Orange Is the New Black Piper Kerman, 2013-07-11 I loved this book a beautifully told story about how incredible women can be and I will never forget it Elizabeth Gilbert bestselling author of Eat Pray Love With her career live in boyfriend and loving family Piper Kerman barely resembles the rebellious young woman who got mixed up with drug runners and delivered a suitcase of drug money to Europe over a decade ago But when she least expects it her reckless past catches up with her convicted and sentenced to fifteen months at an infamous women s prison in Connecticut Piper becomes inmate 11187 424 From her first strip search to her final release she learns to navigate this strange world with its arbitrary rules and codes its unpredictable even dangerous relationships She meets women from all walks of life who surprise her with tokens of generosity hard truths and simple acts of acceptance An original comedy drama series from Netflix Piper s story is a fascinating heartbreaking and often hilarious insight into life on the inside Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Shows Set in New York City Wikipedia contributors, Latinx TV in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama, 2022-04-19 Latinx TV in the Twenty First Century offers an expansive and critical look at contemporary TV by and about U S Latinx communities This volume unpacks the negative implications of older representation and celebrates the progress of new representation all while recognizing that television still has a long way to go Focus On: 100 Most Popular Fictional African-American People Wikipedia contributors, Orange is the new black, 2016 New faces and old resentments make for a potentially volatile blend especially now that Litchfield is a for profit business This season delves into the racial and economic tensions that run rampant in the halls of Litchfield Overrun with new inmates and overseen by inexperienced guards the prison undergoes an unprecedented culture war NR Seeing Justice Mary Angela Bock, 2021-07-01 In Seeing Justice Mary Angela Bock studies the way the American criminal justice system is visually represented in news Going behind the scenes she examines the way visual journalists negotiate with police and court officials to cover the criminal justice system and how officials endeavour to create favourable narratives by controlling what the public sees Critical Concepts in Queer Studies and Education Nelson M. Rodriguez, Wayne J. Martino, Jennifer C. Ingrey, Edward Brockenbrough, 2016-08-30 This book advances a broad constellation of critical concepts situated within the field of queer studies and education Collectively the concepts take up a cross section of scholarship that speaks to various political epistemological theoretical methodological and pedagogical concerns Given the ongoing global centrality of sociocultural and political developments related to the topic of LGBTQ in the twenty first century the concepts in this volume and the issues raised by each contributor will have wide international appeal among researchers scholars educators students and activists working at the intersection of queer studies and education Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women How to Watch Television, Second Edition Ethan Thompson,Jason Mittell,2020-03-31 A new edition that brings the ways we watch and think about television up to the present We all have opinions about the television shows we watch but television criticism is about much more than simply evaluating the merits of a particular show and deeming it good or bad Rather criticism uses the close examination of a television program to explore that program s cultural significance creative strategies and its place in a broader social context How to Watch Television Second Edition brings together forty original essays more than half of which are new to this edition from today s leading scholars on television culture who write about the programs they care and think the most about Each essay focuses on a single television show demonstrating one way to read the program and through it our media culture From fashioning blackness in Empire to representation in Orange is the New Black and from the role of the reboot in Gilmore Girls to the function of changing political atmospheres in Roseanne these essays model how to practice media criticism in accessible language providing critical insights through analysis suggesting a way of looking at TV that students and interested viewers might emulate The contributors discuss a wide range of television programs past and present covering many formats and genres spanning fiction and non fiction broadcast streaming and cable Addressing shows from TV s earliest days to contemporary online transformations of the medium How to Watch Television Second Edition is designed to engender classroom discussion among television critics of all backgrounds To access additional essays from the first edition visit the links tab at nyupress org 9781479898817 how to watch television second edition TV in the USA Vincent LoBrutto,2018-01-04 This three volume set is a valuable resource for researching the history of American television An encyclopedic range of information documents how television forever changed the face of media and continues to be a powerful influence on society What are the reasons behind enduring popularity of television genres such as police crime dramas soap operas sitcoms and reality TV What impact has television had on the culture and morality of American life Does television largely emulate and reflect real life and society or vice versa How does television s influence differ from that of other media such as newspapers and magazines radio movies and the Internet These are just a few of the questions explored in the three volume encyclopedia TV in the USA A History of Icons Idols and Ideas This expansive set covers television from rgen Mittelstra Christoph Paret Markus Rieger Ladich Dieter Thom und Georg Zenkert Television for Women Rachel Moseley, Helen Wheatley, Helen Wood, 2016-11-10 Television for Women brings together emerging and established scholars to reconsider the question of television for women In the context of the 2000s when the potential meanings of both terms have expanded and changed so significantly in what ways might the concept of programming addressed explicitly to a group identified by gender still matter The essays in this collection take the existing scholarship in this field in significant new directions They expand its reach in terms of territory looking beyond for example the paradigmatic Anglo American axis and also historical span Additionally whilst the influential methodological formation of production text and audience is still visible here the new research in Television for Women frequently reconfigures that relationship The topics included here are far reaching from television as material culture at the British exhibition in the first half of the twentieth century women s roles in television production past and present to popular 1960s television such as The Liver Birds and in the twenty first century highly successful programmes including Orange is the New Black Call the Midwife One Born Every Minute and Wanted Down Under This book presents ground breaking research on historical and contemporary relationships between women and television around the world and is an ideal resource for students of television media and gender studies Corrections Mary K. Stohr, Anthony Walsh, 2019-12-10 Written by two academic scholars and former practitioners Corrections From Research to Policy to Practice Second Edition offers students a 21st century look into the treatment and rehabilitative themes that drive modern day corrections Authors Mary K Stohr and Anthony Walsh expertly weave together research policy and practice to give readers a foundational understanding of the field of corrections Readers will gain a comprehensive and practical understanding of corrections as well as exposure to often overlooked topics including correctional programming and treatment special problem solving courts and comparative corrections Woman Up Julia Havas, 2022-03-15 Critically analyzes the discursive relationship between cultural value and popular feminism in American television While American television has long relied on a strategic foregrounding of feminist politics to promote certain programming s cultural value Woman Up Invoking Feminism in Quality Television is the first sustained critical analysis of the twenty first century resurgence of this tradition In Woman Up Julia Havas s central argument is that postmillennial feminist quality television springs from a rhetorical subversion of the much debated masculine coded quality television culture on the one hand and the dominance of postfeminist popular culture on the other Postmillennial quality television culture promotes the idea of aesthetic generic hierarchies among different types of scripted programming Its development has facilitated evaluative academic analyses of television texts based on aesthetic merit producing a corpus of scholarship devoted to pinpointing where value resides in shows considered worthy of discussion Other strands of television scholarship have criticized this approach for sidestepping the gendered and classed processes of canonization informing the phenomenon Woman Up intervenes in this debate by reevaluating such approaches and insisting that rather than further fostering or critiquing already prominent processes of canonization there is a need to interrogate the cultural forces underlying them Via detailed analyses of four TV programs emerging in the early period of the feminist quality TV trend 30 Rock 2006 13 Parks and Recreation 2009 15 The Good Wife 2009 16 and Orange Is the New Black 2013 19 Woman Up demonstrates that such series mediate their cultural significance by combining formal aesthetic exceptionalism and a politicized rhetoric around a problematic postfeminism thus linking ideals of political and aesthetic value Woman Up will most appeal to students and scholars of cinema and media studies feminist media studies television studies and cultural studies Demystifying the Big House Katherine A Foss, 2018-05-23 Foss looks at popular depictions of prison such as Orange Is the New Black and Oz television and film s function and influence in shaping discourse on prison life and wide ranging personal experiences of incarceration ultimately challenging the media s inaccuracies and misrepresentations about the prison experience bereichert in ihrer Perspektivierung und Vorgehensweise den gegenwärtigen Stand der Forschung zu Fernsehen und Streaming. Sie hinterfragt nicht allein ob Serien die auf Plattformen wie Netflix zirkulieren überhaupt noch Fernsehen sind. Sie zeigt auch auf wie Fernsehen im Zuge seiner geänderten Nutzungsformen einen grundsätzlichen Wandel durchläuft an dessen Ende ein Hybridmedium steht für das wir einen neuen Begriff brauchen.
