2025 Questions and Answers 100% Pass

Brown v. Board of Education (1954) - ✓✓SEGREGATION decision that declared state laws segregating schools to be unconstitutional. Overturned Plessy v. Ferguson (1896), the separate but equal ruling.

14th Amendment - US Constitution - ✓✓CITIZENS All citizens have the right to equal protection of the law in all states. Declared that all persons born in the US were citizens, that all citizens were entitled to equal rights and their rights were protected by due process.

15th Amendment - US Constitution - ✓✓VOTE The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Civil Rights Act (1964) - ✓✓Prohibited discrimination against racial, ethnic, national and religious minorities, and women. Ended unequal application of voter registration requirements and racial segregation in schools, at the workplace and by facilities that served the general public (known as "public accommodations").

Swann v. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education (1971) - ✓✓BUSING Bused anti-segregation ruling. Busing was an appropriate remedy for the problem of racial imbalance in schools, even when the imbalance resulted from the selection of students based on geographic proximity to the school rather than from deliberate assignment based on race.

Lawren Folsom, 2024-02-24 This book provides an introductory overview of investigative administrative and judicial processes involved in the private enforcement of civil rights laws in the United States. Lectures further introduce participants to the network of nonprofit organizations, law firms, administrative agencies, federal agencies, and courts that work together to advance civil rights through enforcement. This book is designed to provide information to participants interested personally or professionally in the protection of their own and others' civil rights. Participants will develop civil rights resource guides unique to their jurisdictions, guides to local, state, and federal civil rights protections and enforcement mechanisms. The primary objective of this book is for participants to complete it with a basic but firm grasp of how civil rights enforcement works, coupled with the desire to become involved in local and nationwide civil rights enforcement efforts. Who this book is for: Civil rights professionals, Potential victims of discriminatory business practices, Attorneys with an interest in incorporating civil right enforcement into their business practices through self-monitoring and internal investigations, Individuals and advocates, Social workers, therapists, case workers, and anyone working with populations vulnerable to discrimination. Anyone with an interest in promoting social justice and equality for all.
