Markets in Fashion Patrik Aspers, 2012-10-02 Interest in contemporary cultural industries has grown in the past decade as they take on a greater significance in our increasingly consumer led society Focusing on the world of fashion photography this book presents an interdisciplinary approach in which this and other aesthetic markets such as advertising modelling art music and more can be viewed The main thrust of this groundbreaking book is in developing a theory for these cultural markets characterized by insecurity and where status and aesthetic diversity generate order and price differentiation In these industries services and products are offered that are a mix of the aesthetic and the economic and for fashion photographers such as those studied here it is necessary to carefully position themselves in the market by developing unique photographic styles and separating themselves from competitors Yet the markets in which these industries operate differ from the type of exchange markets depicted by neoclassical economists and therefore cannot be considered using such modes of analysis Instead Aspers conducts his study using empirical phenomenology an original approach presented here for the first time which can be easily used in other empirical studies He draws on original empirical material participant observation and interviews generated in New York and Stockholm which bring a depth of analysis and a relevance to this book which academics researchers and those with a vested interest in such industries will value Written by one of the world s brightest young economic sociologists this fascinating book previously published in Sweden and enthusiastically received is endorsed by recognized industry authorities A noteworthy book it provides a foothold in the burgeoning sub discipline of economic sociology and a significant analysis of the economics of the fashion photography industry

Commercialisation and Innovation Strategy in Small Firms

Tim Mazzarol,Sophie Reboud,Delwyn Clark,Monique Moore,Peter Malone,Geoffrey N. Soutar,2022-06-30 This book focuses on the process of commercialisation and innovation management in small firms Although commercialisation and new product development NPD has been covered quite extensively relatively little attention has been given to how small to medium enterprises SMEs engage with these issues The book explores this topic in depth taking a close look at the reasons why decisions are made and mapping this behaviour against established theories and best practice models of NPD and commercialisation The book uses case studies to analyse the relationship between entrepreneurial decision making and commercialisation and investigates how and why NPD and commercialisation decisions are made which offers valuable insights from both a theoretical and applied perspective International Business, Multi-Nationals, and the Nationality of the Company Boris Gehlen, Christian Marx, Alfred Reckendrees, 2023-12-11 This book discusses challenges that arise for multinational companies from not having a single nationality and being exposed to a variety of simultaneous country specific legally and culturally constructed nationalities at home and abroad Brexit America First campaigns Russia's war against Ukraine or the ever tenser relationship between China and the US have led to raising concerns about foreign direct investments Multinational companies are pressured to withdraw from countries and reorganise global value chains The long held confidence that nationality does not matter for multinational companies in the globalised economy has dwindled Today companies doing business abroad are exposed to implications of their nationality because governments and customers react upon the nationality of a firm or a product as they did in the 20th century The chapters in this book address many international business domains covering political risk liability of foreignness cultural distance headquarters change and tax planning They use different methodological approaches to analyse European and US based MNEs in Europe Africa and South East Asia from 1900 to 1980 The book argues that nationality is not a ghost from the past in international business it is a topic that requires substantial consideration The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Business History De Gruyter Handbook of Business Families Michael Carney, Marleen Dieleman, 2023-01-30 The management field increasingly recognizes that most firms in the world are family firms and that these entities operate differently from the non family firms on which most of our current management theories are based The De Gruyter Handbook of Business Families brings together work from leading academics who explore emerging research themes relevant to business families particularly drawing in new insights from adjacent disciplines that can advance the family business field The handbook challenges the traditional notion of the single firm single family that has characterized most early research on family business Recognizing that families may simultaneously own or control multiple businesses as well as substantial wealth beyond these firms in the form of financial and non financial assets this handbook focuses on business families rather than the narrower construct of family business The contributions in this handbook explore the relatively neglected dynamics between individuals with family ties that shape the interaction between family and business business families with multiple businesses how business families adopt formal rules and processes around their joint activities and the institutionalization of wealth and business families in society The De Gruyter Handbook of Business Families fills a gap in the family business research literature and is an essential reference work for researchers and graduate level students in the area of business families Disruptive Platforms Tymoteusz Doligalski, Michał Goliński, Krzysztof

Kozłowski,2021-12-19 It has taken platforms only twenty years to become digital economy hubs They have changed markets enterprises and society They have expedited communication collaboration and trade for consumers winning their attention and collecting their data In doing so they have made processes products and industries obsolete and disrupted the expectations and behaviours of market players This raises the question are digital platforms global innovators or disruptive monopolists Are they a solution to problems of the past or emissaries of a problematic future This book provides a multi faceted approach to platforms and their profound impact on markets and ecosystems Economic managerial social and political aspects are analysed and the differentiation of platforms and their disruptive potential is reviewed The book also examines the mechanism of achieving a monopolistic position including in the international supply chain and the greater influence of platforms on political activity and contemporary democracy With examples from Poland USA and China the contributions offer an international evaluation of disruptive platforms across a multitude of industries The edited collection prepared by scholars from the SGH Warsaw School of Economics will be valuable to researchers and academics across the fields of strategic management marketing innovations international business and the digital economy Decisions: Risk and Reward
