The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise Dario Fernandez-Morera, 2023-07-11 A finalist for World Magazine's Book of the Year Scholars, journalists and even politicians uphold Muslim ruled medieval Spain al Andalus as a multicultural paradise a place where Muslims Christians and Jews lived in harmony There is only one problem with this widely accepted account it is a myth In this groundbreaking book Northwestern University scholar Dario Fernandez Morera tells the full story of Islamic Spain The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise shines light on hidden history by drawing on an abundance of primary sources that scholars have ignored as well as archaeological evidence only recently unearthed This supposed beacon of peaceful coexistence began of course with the Islamic Caliphate's conquest of Spain Far from a land of religious tolerance Islamic Spain was marked by religious and therefore cultural repression in all areas of life and the marginalization of Christians and other groups all this in the service of social control by autocratic rulers and a class of religious authorities The Myth of the Andalusian Paradise provides a desperately needed reassessment of medieval Spain As professors politicians and pundits continue to celebrate Islamic Spain for its multiculturalism and diversity Fernandez Morera sets the historical record straight showing that a politically useful myth is a myth nonetheless

Hemingway's Widow Timothy Christian, 2022-03-01 A stunning portrait of the complicated woman who becomes Ernest Hemingway's fourth wife tracing her adventures before she meets Ernest exploring the tumultuous years of their marriage and evoking her merry widowhood as she shapes Hemingway's literary legacy Mary Welsh a celebrated wartime journalist during the London Blitz and the liberation of Paris meets Ernest Hemingway in May 1944 He becomes so infatuated with Mary that he asks her to marry him the third time they meet although they are married to other people Eventually she succumbs to Ernest's campaign and in the last days of the war joined him at his estate in Cuba Through Mary's eyes we see Ernest Hemingway in a fresh light Their turbulent marriage survives his cruelty and abuse perhaps because of their sexual compatibility and her essential contribution to his writing She reads and types his work each day and makes plot suggestions She becomes crucial to his work and he depends upon her critical reading of his work to know if he has it right We watch the Hemingways as they travel to the ski country of the Dolomites commute to Harry's Bar in Venice attend bullfights in Pamplona and Madrid go on safari in Kenya in the thick of the Mau Mau Rebellion and fish the blue waters of the gulf stream off Cuba in Ernest's beloved boat Pilar We see Ernest fall in love with a teenaged Italian countess and wonder at Mary's tolerance of the affair We witness Ernest's sad decline and Mary's efforts to avoid the stigma of suicide by claiming his death was an accident In the years following Ernest's death Mary devotes herself to his literary legacy negotiating with Castro to reclaim Ernest's manuscripts from Cuba publishing one third of his work posthumously She supervises Carlos Baker's biography of Ernest, sues A. E. Hotchner to try and prevent him from telling the story of Ernest's mental decline and spends years writing her memoir in her penthouse overlooking the New York skyline. Her story is one of an opinionated woman who smokes Camels, drinks gin, swears like a man, sings like Edith Piaf, loves passionately and experiments with gender fluidity in her extraordinary life with Ernest. This true story reads like a novel and the reader will be hard pressed not to fall for Mary.

Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie Diamond, 2020-07-01 In recent years, schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers. Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world. These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U.S. or the United Kingdom, information on them in English can be difficult to find. Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U.S., Britain, and Ireland since 1800. More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists, poets, dramatists, and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes. Entries range in length from 200 to 1,000 words each and include a biographical sketch, synopses of major works, and a brief bibliography. Dozens of entries are new to this edition, and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections. Coverage includes Chinua Achebe, Margaret Atwood, Roberto Bolaño, Albert Camus, Khalid Hosseini, Victor Hugo, Mohammad Iqbal, Franz Kafka, Stieg Larsson, Mario Vargas Llosa, Naghib Mahfouz, Gabriel García Márquez, Kenzaburo Oe, Marcel Proust, Leo Tolstoy, Emile Zola, and more.

The Myth of the Clash of Civilizations Chiara Bottici, Benoît Challand, 2013-01-11 While globalization unifies the world, divisions re-emerge within it in the form of a spectacular separation between Islam and the West. How can it be that Huntington's contested idea of a clash of civilizations became such a powerful political myth through which so many people look at the world? Bottici and Challand disentangle such a process of myth-making both in the West and in Muslim majority countries and call for a renewed critical attitude towards it. By analysing a process of elaboration of this myth that took place in academic books, arts, and media, comics, and Hollywood films, they show that the clash of civilizations has become a cognitive scheme through which people look at the world, a practical image on the basis of which they act on it as well as a drama which mobilizes passions and emotions. Written in a concise and accessible way, this book is a timely and valuable contribution to the academic literature and more generally to the public debate. As such, it will be an important reference for scholars and students of political science, sociology, philosophy, cultural studies, Middle Eastern politics, and Islam.

The Eurabia Myth Mehammed Amadeus Mack, 2025-11-18 The roots and reach of Great Replacement theory in France and beyond. The Eurabia Myth delves into the origins and evolution of far-right anxieties about the future of a Europe that welcomes postcolonial migration, racial and ethnic diversity, and tolerance of Islam. Nationalists deploy the specter of Eurabia, an Arabized and Islamized Europe, as a doomsday scenario of demographic replacement that only they can avert. Mehammed

Amadeus Mack traces this dark vision to a sociopolitical conspiracy theory that began in France spread throughout Europe and has become especially virulent in the United States Great Replacement Theory Examining how the Eurabia narrative gained traction Mack analyzes dystopian fiction that envisions how this Replacement will take place the contemporary politicization of medieval history and ecofascist rhetoric depicting immigrants as an invasive species He also interviews prominent French activists of color about how they subvert being portrayed as Replacers and destroyers of European civilization and he explores the American echoes of the Great Replacement Theory Innovatively deploying gender and sexuality theory to the concept of Eurabia Mack demonstrates that the demographic and racial anxieties underlying Great Replacement Theory are intertwined with a more fundamental crisis of masculinity evident in the far right s accusations that feminists and the LGBT community are responsible for the decline in white birth rates As it uncovers the deeper roots of this pervasive theory The Eurabia Myth shows its insidious relevance to a rising tide of nativist fear hatred and violence Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Translating Travel Loredana Polezzi, 2017-03-02 Translating Travel examines the relationship between travel writing and translation asking what happens when books travel beyond the narrow confines of one genre one literary system and one culture The volume takes as its starting point the marginal position of contemporary Italian travel writing in the Italian literary system and proposes a comparative reading of originals and translations designed to highlight the varying reception of texts in different cultures Two main themes in the book are the affinity between the representations produced by travel and the practices of translation and the complex links between travel writing and genres such as ethnography journalism autobiography and fiction Individual chapters are devoted to Italian travellers accounts of Tibet and their English translations the hybridization of journalism and travel writing in the works of Oriana Fallaci Italo Calvino s sublimation of travel writing in the stylized fiction of Le città invisibili and the complex network of literary references which marked the reception of Claudio Magris s Danubio in different cultures

Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli, 2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love s paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty
