Turow, 2010-08-26 Joe Turow's Playing Doctor disquiets and challenges the reader's intellect with cogent analysis of the forces that have shaped television's portrayal of doctors and the medical world For that alone it is a fantastic read But Dr Turow also pleases the mind with well written and amusing stories interviews and behind the scenes anecdotes that bring to life in an eminently readable style the fascinating world of TV medicine David Foster M.D. supervising producer writer and medical consultant for House Joseph Turow takes us behind the scenes of such hit television series as ER Grey's Anatomy and House to reveal the complex relationship viewers have with their beloved fictional caregivers Turow carefully probes the history of TV medical series and presents a compelling argument for telling more truthful medical stories in the future to reflect and address the precarious state of our health care system today Neal Baer M.D. executive producer of Law Order Special Victims Unit The great contribution of Turow's book in addition to providing a highly readable and smart overview of medical shows over the years is to examine the consequences of the gap between the reality of medical care and the often romanticized heroic depictions on television This would be a very good book for professors to use in teaching a range of courses in communications studies from introductory courses to more specialized classes on health and the media Susan Douglas Catherine Neafie Kellogg Professor Arthur F Thurnau Professor Communications Studies Department Chair
