Music Richard J. Colwell, Michael P. Hewitt, 2017-10-12 The Teaching of Instrumental Music Fifth Edition introduces music education majors to basic instrumental pedagogy for the instruments and ensembles commonly found in the elementary and secondary curricula. It focuses on the core competencies required for teacher certification in instrumental music with the pervasive philosophy to assist teachers as they develop an instrumental music program based on understanding and respecting all types of music. Parts I and II focus on essential issues for a successful instrumental program presenting first the history and foundations followed by effective strategies in administrative tasks and classroom teaching. Parts III, IV, and V are devoted to the skills and techniques of woodwind, brass, and percussion and string instruments. In all, The Teaching of Instrumental Music is the complete reference for the beginning instrumental teacher commonly retained in a student's professional library for its unique and comprehensive coverage. NEW TO THIS EDITION: Revision and updating of curriculum developments such as coordinating State Department of Education student learning objectives with the recent Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). New discussion of the NAfME National Standards as they relate to the teaching of instrumental music. Revamping of rehearsing instrumental ensembles chapters including new or expanded sections on programming, choosing quality music, and applying successful rehearsal techniques. Updates on references plus new discussion questions and websites and internet links. A chapter devoted to classroom guitar. Updates on the use of technology for teaching and learning music. More on healthy performance practice, marching band, and jazz band. Online materials located in the eResources section on the Routledge website.

Practical Percussion James Holland, 2005-09-16 The second half of the twentieth century saw vast changes in all aspects of percussion: the instruments themselves, playing techniques, and percussion writing, plus the huge influence of pop music, jazz, and film scores. Additionally, the revolution in travel and communications has meant that composers have become much more aware of a seemingly endless variety of ethnic instruments from around the world. Holland aims to show the world of percussion as it is today and to answer some common questions about it. Today's professional players frequently find themselves performing in many countries where the availability of percussion instruments can vary widely. Practical Percussion contains a section on manufacturers and suppliers all over the world. In addition to this list of manufacturers, the percussion requirements both instruments and players for some 1500 works are also listed. The foreword by Pierre Boulez further assists the reader in appreciating and understanding the richness, variety, and function of percussion instruments the world over.

Wrong Sex, Wrong Instrument Maggie Cotton, 2011-07-27 Now retired and no longer silenced by a contract, Maggie Cotton presents an honest and long overdue player's perspective of life inside a professional symphony orchestra, describing how she became the first female percussionist in what was initially a staunchly male-dominated world. Now retired after forty years with the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, Maggie gives a fascinating and humorous insight into every aspect of her working life, including tours, conductors, composers, soloists, colleagues, recording contracts, and educational work as well as her own family.

life and the social conditions of wartime England and post war Eastern Europe Bolstered by her gritty Yorkshire roots and naively undeterred by overwhelming odds Maggie overcame many hurdles in pursuit of her ambition to play percussion in a professional symphony orchestra in so doing transforming the face of women in that field from one of novelty circus performer to respected professional and colleague Symphonic Repertoire Guide for Timpani and Percussion Raynor Carroll,2005 NACWPI Journal National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors,2003
