Paul Mathews,2006 Orchestration An Anthology of Writings is designed to be a primary or ancillary text for college level music majors Although there are several how to textbooks aimed at this market there is little available that traces the history of orchestration through the writings of composers themselves By collecting writings from the nineteenth century to today Mathews illuminates how orchestration has grown and developed as well as presenting a wide variety of theories that have been embraced by the leading practitioners in the field The collection then traces the history of orchestration beginning with Beethoven s Orchestra with writings by Berlioz Wagner Gounod Mahler and others the 19th century Mahler Gevaert Strauss the fin de siecle on the edge of musical modernism writings by Berlioz Jadassohn Delius and Rimsky Korsakov early modern Busoni Schoenberg Stravinsky Grainger and others and high modern Carter Feldman Reich Brant Many of these pieces have never been translated into English before some only appeared in small journals or the popular press and have never appeared in a book and none have ever been collected in one place The study of orchestration is a key part of all students of music theory and composition Orchestration provides a much needed resource for these students filling a gap in the literature Orchestral techniques Gordon JACOB,1962 A History of Orchestral Conducting Elliott W. Galkin,1988 Although the bibliography of literature about personalities in the conducting world is extensive a comprehensive scholarly study of the history of conducting has been sorely lacking Georg Sch nemann s respected study published in 1913 was brief and restricted to the procedures of time beating No work has attempted to examine the role of the orchestral conductor and to document the evolution of his art from historical technical and aesthetic perspectives Dr Elliott W Galkin musicologist conductor and critic twice winner of the Deems Taylor award for distinguished writing about music has produced such a work in A History of Orchestral Conducting The central historical section of the book which examines chronologically the theories and functions of time beating and interpretative concepts of performance is preceded by discussions of rhythm development of the orchestral medium and the evolving characteristics of orchestration Conductors of unusual pivotal influence are examined in depth as is the increasingly complex psychology of the podium Critical writings since the time of Monteverdi and the birth of the orchestra are surveyed and compared Analyses of conducting as an art and craft by musicians from Berlioz to Bernstein and commentators from Mattheson Bernard Shaw and Thomas Mann to Jacques Barzun are described and discussed A fascinating collection of engravings wood cuts photographs and caricatures contributes to the richness of this work Bibliographie des Musikschrifttums, 1991 Beigabe zum Archiv f r Musikforschung und zur Deutschen Musikkultur 1936
