Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Chinese Art Patricia Bjaaland Welch, 2013-02-19 With over 630 striking color photos and illustrations this Chinese art guide focuses on the rich tapestry of symbolism which makes up the basis of traditional Chinese art Chinese Art A Guide to Motifs and Visual Imagery includes detailed commentary and historical background information for the images that continuously reappear in the arts of China including specific plants and animals religious beings mortals and inanimate objects The book thoroughly illuminates the origins common usages and diverse applications of popular Chinese symbols in a tone that is both engaging and authoritative Chinese Art A Guide to Motifs and Visual Imagery is an essential reference for collectors museum goers guides students and anyone else with a serious interest in the culture and history of China

Global and World Art in the Practice of the University Museum Jane Chin Davidson, Sandra Esslinger, 2017-07-20 Global and World Art in the Practice of the University Museum provides new thinking on exhibitions of global art and world art in relation to university museums Taking The Fowler Museum at UCLA USA as its central subject this edited collection traces how university museum practices have expanded the understanding of the art object in recent years It is argued that the meaning of cultural objects infused with the heritage and identity of global culture has been developed substantially through the innovative approaches of university scholars museum curators and administrators since the latter part of the twentieth century Through exploring the ways in which universities and their museums have overseen changes in the global context for art this edited collection initiates a larger dialogue and inquiry into the value and contribution of the empirical model The volume includes a full colour photo essay by Marla C Berns on the Fowler Museum's Fowler at Fifty project as well as contributions from Donald Preziosi Catherine M Cole Lothar von Falkenhausen Claire Farago Selma Holo and Gemma Rodrigues It is important reading for professionals scholars and advanced students alike

Chinese Art Objects, Collecting, and Interior Design in Twentieth-Century Britain Helen Glaister, 2022-08-26 This book explores the relationship between collecting Chinese ceramics interior design and display in Britain through the eyes of collectors designers and tastemakers during the years leading to during and following the Second World War The Ionides Collection of European style Chinese export porcelain forms the nucleus of this study defined by its design hybridity offering insights into the agency of Chinese porcelain in diverse contexts from seventeenth century Batavia to twentieth century Britain raising questions about notions of Chineseness Britishness and identity politics across time and space Through the biographies of the collectors this book highlights the role of collecting Chinese art objects particularly porcelain in the construction of individual and group identities Social networks linking the Ionides to agents and dealers auctioneers and museum specialists bring into focus the dynamics of collecting during this period the taste of the Ionides and their self fashioning as collectors The book will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of art history history of collections interior design Chinese studies and material culture studies

Mirror of Morality Julia K. Murray, 2007-01-31 Mirror of Morality takes an interdisciplinary look at an important form of pictorial art produced during two millennia of Chinese imperial rule Ideas about individual morality and state ideology were based on the ancient teachings of Confucius with modifications by later interpreters and government institutions Throughout the imperial period members of the elite made sponsored and inscribed or used illustrations of themes taken from history literature and recent events to promote desired conduct among various social groups This dimension of Chinese art history has never before been broadly covered or investigated in historical context The first half of the study examines the nature of narrative illustration in China and traces the evolution of its functions conventions and rhetorical strategies from the second century BCE through the eleventh century Under the stimulus of Buddhism sophisticated techniques developed for representing stories in visual form While tracing changes in the social functions and cultural positions of narrative illustration the second half of the book argues that narrative illustration continued to play a vital role in elite visual culture
