Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M. Bentley,2024-12-15 In Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M Bentley argues that apologies are losing their meaning in American society as organizations and public figures treat them as strategical tools without considering their ethical implications As the demand for apologies in the age of social media continues to increase exponentially Bentley posits the apologies that are given carry less and less weight to the public This book examines how controversial figures like Donald Trump and Joe Rogan as well as brands like Google and Bud Light have addressed public controversies both effectively and ineffectively illustrating how social media polarization and cancel culture are changing the way apologies are given and received If apologies are to serve their historical role of resolving conflict peacefully Bentley argues they must be placed back into their proper ethical context This book offers insight on how individuals and organizations can ensure their apologies reflect their authentic values Scholars of communication ethics media studies political science and public relations will find it especially useful The Deal ,2010
