established democratic societies the political system currently faces a crisis of civic engagement and participation. Increasingly this lack of engagement and the accompanying erosion of institutional legitimacy result in antidemocratic populist currents gaining ground. It is an important challenge for both the humanities and the social sciences to analyse this crisis and discuss possible answers that may contribute to strengthening the position of the democratic public sphere in the political process thus emphasising the crucial role of civic engagement and participation in renewing democracy. The articles in this volume seek the sources for such democratic innovations in a variety of existing less formalised practices and experiences in public space in citizens forums and other concrete arenas for democratic debate and participation in the media in general including social media and other digital platforms in social movements and in artistic interventions in the public sphere. The volume presents selected and edited papers and keynote lectures from the international research conference The Democratic Public Sphere Current Challenges and Prospects which was held at Aarhus University on November 5-7 2015. It includes contributions by keynote speakers Mark E Warren Nick Couldry Donatella della Porta and Stephen Duncombe.

Love Sewing Issue 119 - 2023 Magazines Global, Love Sewing Issue 119 2023 Digital Vertigo (FREE Extended Extract) Andrew Keen, 2012-03-01 This is an Extended Extract of Digital Vertigo to be published on May 22nd 2012. You can follow Andrew Keen at ajkeen.com. In Digital Vertigo Andrew Keen presents today's social media revolution as the most wrenching cultural transformation since the Industrial Revolution. Fusing a fast-paced historical narrative with front-line stories from today's online networking revolution and critiques of social companies like Groupon Zynga and LinkedIn Keen argues that the social media transformation is weakening disorienting and dividing us rather than establishing the dawn of a new egalitarian and communal age. The tragic paradox of life in the social media age Keen says is the incompatibility between our internet longings for community and friendship and our equally powerful desire for online individual freedom. By exposing the shallow core of social networks Andrew Keen shows us that the more electronically connected we become the lonelier and less powerful we seem to be.
