Graders Story follows 13 year old Austin Keller a writer with Cerebral Palsy who uses a wheelchair to get from place to place due to the obstacles he faces due to his condition In addition to having Cerebral Palsy his parents divorced because of his father's PTSD and alcoholism which led to him being labeled an outcast at Plantation Middle School A MacBook Pro gives him a sense of belonging for his 13th birthday and he is encouraged to join the school creative writing club changing his life forever In this inspiring story Austin Keller an eighth grader with cerebral palsy shares his story that differs greatly from that of most eighth graders Austin uses a wheelchair to get around since he has cerebral palsy Writing became his passion due to his disability Austin has been able to use writing as an outlet for his feelings and as a way to express himself Through writing he has been able to share his experiences with others something he wouldn't have been able to do without his disability

Writing has given Austin the opportunity to connect with and inspire people all over the world. He has been able to develop his own unique voice and style and share his story with people who may not have been in a position to understand it in any other way. Through writing, he was able to express himself and gain self-confidence despite living with a disability. He used writing to express his thoughts and feelings about his experiences and to inspire others. In order to cope with living in a world where he is not understood, he entered the Youth Writers Competition. By entering the competition, he was able to share his story with others and have it validated, which helped boost his self-esteem. Participating in the competition also allowed him to connect with other people who have similar experiences and to find support and community.

I Fight, You Fight
Alex Noble, 2024-06-05

The inspiring story from 2025 NSW Young Australian of the Year Nominee Alex Noble, whose wisdom and strength can teach us all how to live life to the fullest no matter what it throws at us. Sixteen-year-old Alex Noble was a high school rugby star with a promising sporting career ahead of him when an on-field injury left him fighting for his life in the ICU. Following a four-day coma and a diagnosis of C4 quadriplegia, Alex's first words to his brother Zac were "If I fight, you fight." These words became a war cry as Alex's friends, family, and community rallied around him, watching in awe as he fought to regain control over his body and defy his diagnosis. From learning to breathe and move again to travelling the world, starting his own business, and even going skydiving, Alex's story is about the power of mastering your own mind, finding happiness, and taking risks to achieve your goals no matter how out of reach they may seem. Full of warmth, humour, and insight, this is a book that will teach you principles to live your life by, written by a young man who has put them into practice. I Fight, You Fight is so much more than an inspiring memoir; it's a philosophy for finding happiness and reaching your true potential.
