Disability and Masculinities Cassandra Loeser,Vicki Crowley,Barbara Pini,2017-05-02 In recent years attending to diversity in the cultivation of embodied identity has been given additional impetus as a result of intersectionality theory Despite this a key gap remains in terms of knowledge about masculinity and disability This book addresses this lacuna through ten empirical chapters organised through the inter related themes of corporeality pedagogy and the critique of otherness Each of the chapters positions the subject of masculinity and disability as a site of cultural pedagogy by affirming different ways of knowing of masculinity beyond dominant ideologies that normalise a particular masculine body and relegate disabled masculinities to the position of abnormal Other Part One focuses on pedagogy Through the materialities of medicalized colonialism imprimaturs of relational genealogies compounding differences and an analytical exposition of some of the neo colonial conditions of the Global South within spatially considered places ofthe Global North Chapter 1 examines the denial of human rights to the Indigenous Anishinaabe community of Shoal Lake 40 in Canada Chapter 1 theorises masculine corporeality in terms that take seriously First Nations national and transnational body politics seriously Chapter 2 examines the ways that movement and affect serve as a form of pedagogy for boys with autism spectrum in schools Part Two's focus on corporeality includes an examination of the nexus of disability and diagnosis in the context of transgender men's experiences of mental health and a discussion of the ways that intersex individuals who identify as men and have experienced genital normalising surgery actively negotiate pluralised masculinities The focus on media in Part Three encompasses a study of the misinterpellation of the disabled male subject in Australian male literature research on the discursive strategies utilised in media representations of disabled veterans in Turkey and an analysis of the political implications of depictions of masculinity disability and sexualities in a variety television program Part Four's theme of self stylisation takes up the questions of men's reconstructions of masculinity in light of Lyme Disease the potential pleasures of heterosexuality for young men with a hearing disability in the realm of Australian Rules Football and the diverse ways that disabled men negotiate patriarchal masculinity in intimate relationships

Conceiving Masculinity Liberty Walther Barnes, 2014-04-25 In Conceiving Masculinity Liberty Walther Barnes puts the world of male infertility under the microscope to examine how culturally pervasive notions of gender shape our understanding of disease and how disease impacts our personal ideas about gender Taking readers inside male infertility clinics and interviewing doctors and couples dealing with male infertility Barnes provides a rich account of the social aspects of the confusing and frustrating diagnosis of infertility She explains why men resist a stigmatizing label like infertile and how men with poor fertility redefine for themselves what it means to be manly and masculine in a society that prizes male virility Conceiving Masculinity also details how and why men embrace medical technologies and treatment for infertility Broaching a socially taboo topic Barnes emphasizes that infertility is not just a women's issue She shows how gender and disease are socially constructed within social institutions and by individuals

Live and Die Like a Man Farha Ghannam, 2023-05-25 An anthropologist deconstructs the notion of masculinity using twenty years of field research in the Cairo neighborhood of al Zawiya Watching the revolution of January 2011 the world saw Egyptians men and women come together to fight for freedom and social justice These events gave renewed urgency to the fraught topic of gender in the Middle East The role of women in public life the meaning of manhood and the future of gender inequalities are hotly debated by religious figures government officials activists scholars and ordinary citizens throughout Egypt Live and Die Like a Man presents a unique twist on traditional understandings of gender and gender roles shifting the attention to men and exploring how they are collectively produced as gendered subjects It traces how masculinity is continuously maintained and reaffirmed by both men and women under changing socio economic and political conditions Over a period of nearly twenty years Farha Ghannam lived and conducted research in al Zawiya a low income neighborhood not far from Tahrir Square in northern Cairo Detailing her daily encounters and ongoing interviews she develops life stories that reveal the everyday practices and struggles of the neighborhood over the years We meet Hiba and her husband as they celebrate the birth of their first son and begin to teach him how to become a man Samer a forty year old man trying to find a suitable wife Abu Hosni who struggled with different illnesses and other local men and women who share their reactions to the uprising and the changing situation in Egypt Against this backdrop of individual experiences Ghannam develops the concept of masculine trajectories to account for the various paths men can take to embody social norms In showing how men work to realize a male ideal she counters the prevalent dehumanizing stereotypes of Middle Eastern men all too frequently reproduced in media reports and opens new spaces for rethinking patriarchal structures and their constraining effects on both men and women Praise for Live and Die Like a Man In a book that lives up to its name anthropologist Ghannam explores what it means to be a man Her thick descriptions amassed over 20 years of research will make readers laugh cry and gasp at the lives of these individuals By examining the construct of manhood Ghannam is charting new territory in Middle Eastern studies Summing Up Highly recommended CHOICE With its focus on masculinity Farha Ghannam's thoughtful ethnography Live and Die Like a Man makes important interventions into the anthropological scholarship on gender childhood and family in the Middle East Her ethnographic sensibility perfectly grasps the dynamic and complex intertwining of male and female ways of being and self presentation and how that interrelationship forms men's lives International Journal of Middle East Studies

Men's Health Equity Derek M. Griffith, Marino A. Bruce, Roland J. Thorpe, Jr., 2019-04-25 Worldwide men have more opportunities, privileges, and power yet they also have shorter life expectancies than women. Why is this? Why are there stark differences in the burden of disease, quality of life, and length of life amongst men by race, ethnicity, disability status, sexual orientation, gender identity, rurality, and national context? Why is this a largely unexplored area of research? Men's Health Equity is the first volume to describe men's health equity as a field of study that emerged from gaps in and between research on men's health and health inequities. This handbook provides a comprehensive review of foundations of the field, summarizes the issues unique to different populations, discusses key frameworks for studying and exploring issues that cut across populations in the United States, Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, Central America, and South America, and offers strategies for improving the health of key population groups and achieving men's health equity overall. This book systematically explores the underlying causes of these differences, describes the specific challenges faced by particular groups of men, and offers policy and programmatic strategies to improve the health and well-being of men and pursue men's health equity. Men's Health Equity will be the first collection to present the state of the science in this field, its progress, its breadth, and its future. This book is an invaluable resource for scholars, researchers, students, and professionals interested in men's health equity, men's health psychology, men's health, gender studies, public health, and global health.
