McNeill, H. M. Gamer, 1965 Love Cures Laine E. Doggett, 2012-04-30 What is love Popular culture bombards us with notions of the intoxicating capacities of love or of beguiling women who can bewitch or heal to the point that it is easy to believe that such images are timeless and universal Not so argues Laine Doggett in Love Cures Aspects of love that are expressed in popular music such as love is a drug sexual healing and love potion number nine trace deep roots to Old French romance of the high Middle Ages A young woman heals a poisoned knight A mother prepares a love potion for a daughter who will marry a stranger in a faraway land How can readers interpret such events In contrast to scholars who have dismissed these women as fantasy figures or labeled them witches Doggett looks at them in the light of medical and magical practices of the high Middle Ages Love Cures argues that these practitioners as represented in romance have shaped modern notions of love Love Cures seeks to engage scholars of love marriage and magic in disciplines as diverse as literature history anthropology and philosophy Ecological Interdependencies Zeynep Y. Gökçe, Jennifer Leetsch, 2025-11-17 This volume interrogates the environmental humanities through the lens of asymmetrical dependencies it is interested in investigating the relationship between the environment and asymmetrical power dynamics an approach that sheds light on how historical and contemporary inequalities have shaped and still shape our social political and cultural realities as they intersect with their respective ecosystems In an attempt to bridge disciplines the volume synthesizes diverse perspectives from the humanities and social sciences anthropology art history cultural studies archaeology religious studies political science and literary studies attending to the tangled and often thorny relationships that form human and more than human existence By incorporating ecological viewpoints and recognizing the agency of non human actors the book aims to amplify the often overlooked voices of the marginalized including those beyond the human realm Understanding the intersections of power dynamics and human history requires acknowledging our deeply interconnected existence within a broader planetary context and this edited volume s contributions offer a lens through which to rethink enduring questions of difference and dependency

These considerations are framed not as abstract or theoretical exercises but as deeply grounded in material realities shaped by histories of asymmetry inequality and exploitation thus challenging us to critically reframe notions of ecological interdependencies beyond the universalizing narratives of the Anthropocene Saint and Hero Robert Boenig,1991 This work is a historicist analysis of the Old English poem Andreas from the Vercelli Book Law and Revolution Harold J. Berman,1985-01-01 The roots of modern Western legal institutions and concepts go back nine centuries to the papal revolution when the Western church established its political and legal unity and its independence from emperors kings and feudal lords Out of this upheaval came the Western idea of integrated legal systems developed over generations and centuries The Journal of Medieval and Renaissance Studies ,1986 Sex and the New Medieval Literature of Confession, 1150-1300 Pierre J. Payer,2009 This volume rounds out an important trilogy of studies by Pierre Payer on the topic of sex in the ecclesiastical thought and writings of the middle ages His first volume Sex and the Penitentials The Development of a Sexual Code 550 1150 1984 provided a comprehensive survey of the treatment of sexual issues in early penitential writings The Bridling of Desire Views of Sex in the Later Middle Ages 1993 his second book carried the discussion forward into the twelfth and thirteenth centuries assessing the contributions to the topic in the era of the great scholastic theologians such as Aquinas Bonaventure and Albert the Great In every way the equal of the two magisterial studies that preceded it this third volume examines the treatment of sex in the new literature of penance and confession Composed by canon lawyers as well as by theologians for the instruction of priests it is one of the most popular genres of writing of the later middle ages although it remains largely unknown and underutilized as a historical source Sex figures prominently revealing the concerns and expectations of the authors and presenting their solutions to the practical matters of how sexual behaviour was to be confessed what questions were to be asked of penitents and what penances were to be imposed Pierre Payer guides readers through this varied and heterogeneous corpus with great patience and erudition His analysis ranges over the origin and development of the idea of lechery as one of the capital sins and the distinction between natural and unnatural acts and explores the moral consequences of sexual behaviour even within marriage providing us much insight into the act and art of confession and the intimate relationship between priest and penitent that underlies it Rhetoric, Ritual, and Redemption : Narratives of Executions in Late Medieval and Early Modern England Katherine Adele Royer,2001

Penance in Medieval Europe, 600-1200 Rob Meens,2014-07-17 Penance has traditionally been viewed exclusively as the domain of church history but penance and confession also had important social functions in medieval society In this book Rob Meens comprehensively reassesses the evidence from late antiquity to the thirteenth century employing a broad range of sources including letters documentation of saints lives visions liturgical texts monastic rules and conciliar legislation from across Europe Recent discoveries have unearthed fascinating new evidence established new relationships between key texts and given more attention to the manuscripts in which penitential books are found Many of these discoveries and new approaches are revealed here for the first time to a general audience Providing a full and up to date overview of penitential literature during the period Meens sets the rituals of penance and confession in their social contexts providing the first introduction to this fundamental feature of medieval religion and society for more than fifty years Aus rheinischer und fränkischer Frühzeit Wilhelm Levison,1948 American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1939

Pilgrimage in the Middle Ages Linda Kay Davidson,1993 A 200 page introduction to pilgrimage in the Middle Ages and its study is followed by a thoroughly annotated bibliography of over 1000 primary and secondary scholarly and popular works on such aspects of the subject as the medieval concept of pilgrimage specific sites and its manifestation in literature music art architecture and political and religious history Each topical section notes important primary sources and key scholarly works that provide an opening for research Focuses on the period from the 4th century to the Renaissance but also notes works describing pre Christian and 20th century pilgrimages Includes an outline for beginning scholars No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Witchcraft in the Ancient World and the Middle Ages Brian P. Levack,1992
