Storying our Relationship with Nature Amanda Fiore, Jing Lin, 2024-03-07 This book takes readers on a journey that is part storytelling part academic analysis and part spiritual exploration The authors identify the climate emergency as a breakdown in spiritual consciousness which fails to recognize our deep interconnection with Nature To meet this crisis of spirit Storying Our Relationship with Nature serves as a guide for transforming ourselves and our lives through story and highlights the importance of social and emotional aspects of environmental education The authors introduce the philosophical and historical foundations of our objectification of Nature as a commodity and describe the effect this view has on our lives They detail a path forward through storytelling contemplative practice Eastern philosophy and the transformative power of education Throughout the book reflective activities provide a space for the reader to personalize their learning leading the reader towards the book's central message once we learn to consciously re-story our relationship with Nature we can transform our cultural narrative of fatalism and greed into one of love determination and possibility helping us move towards a sustainable future

Contemplative Pedagogies for Transformative Teaching, Learning, and Being Jing Lin, Tom E. Culham, Sachi Edwards, 2019-11-01 In our current systems of education there is a trend toward compartmentalizing knowledge standardizing assessments of learning and focusing primarily on quantifiable and positivist forms of inquiry Contemplative inquiry on the other hand takes us on a transformative pathway toward wisdom morality integrity equanimity and joy Zajonc 2009 These holistic learning practices are needed as a counterbalance to the over emphasis on positivism that we see today In addition to learning quantifiable information we also need to learn to be calmer wiser kinder and happier This book aims to find and share various pathways leading to these ends This book will describe educational endeavors in various settings that use contemplative pedagogies to enable students to achieve deep learning peace tranquility equanimity and wisdom to gain new understanding about self and life and to grow holistically Embodiment is a central concept in this book We hope to highlight strategies for exploring internal wisdoms through engaging ourselves beyond simply the rational mind Contemplative pedagogies such as meditation yoga tai chi dance arts poetry reflective writing and movements can help students embody what they learn by integrating their body heart mind and spirit

Mindfulness and Contemplative Interaction for Higher Education David N. Sable, 2025-12-17 This book situates mindfulness and contemplative interaction at the heart of transformative learning for a more sustainable and compassionate world Drawing on a mixed methods study of a specific set of reflective learning activities introduced to undergraduates in Canada the book highlights the importance of critical thinking and the necessity of the underlying affective dispositions to transformative learning It argues that contemplative practices can play a central role in creating an unexpected sense of connectedness even among students who do not agree with each other who may come from widely different backgrounds and who may not speak English as a first language These practices encourage students to improve their listening skills suspend judgments and explore multiple points of view without confirmation bias or rigidity Mindfulness and contemplative interaction are further discussed in the context of the growing use of generative AI in higher education and the practical issues of student evaluation and feedback This forward thinking volume will appeal to contemplative practice scholars in the field of higher education as well as educators and researchers with interests in transformative learning critical thinking and applied mindfulness

Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator, 2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning

Teaching Gloria E. Anzaldúa Margaret Cantú-Sánchez, Candace de León-Zepeda, Norma Elia Cantú, 2020-09-29 Gloria Evangelina Anzaldúa a theorist Chicana feminist famously called on scholars to do work that matters This pronouncement was a rallying call inspiring scholars across disciplines to become scholar activists and to channel their intellectual energy and labor toward the betterment of society Scholars and activists alike have encountered and expanded on these pathbreaking theories and concepts first introduced by Anzaldúa in Borderlands La frontera and other texts Teaching Gloria E Anzaldúa is a pragmatic and inspiring offering of how to apply Anzaldúa's ideas to the classroom and in the community rather than simply discussing them as theory The book gathers nineteen essays by scholars activists teachers and professors who share how their first hand use of Anzaldúa's theories in their classrooms and community environments The collection is divided into three main parts according to the ways the text has been used Curriculum Design Pedagogy and Praxis and Decolonizing Pedagogies As a pedagogical text Teaching Gloria E Anzaldúa also offers practical advice in the form of lesson plans activities and other suggested resources for the classroom This volume offers practical and inspiring ways to deploy Anzaldúa's transformative theories with real and meaningful action
