Alper,1991-01-01 Karma and Creativity Christopher Key Chapple,Navin and Pratima Doshi Professor of Indic and Comparative Theology Christopher Key Chapple,1986-01-01 The conception of karma in the religious traditions of India has prompted numerous interpretations many of which equate karma with notions of fate Karma and Creativity presents a perspective on karma that emphasizes the efficacy of human activity in bringing about desired results from upholding societal order to the attainment of spiritual liberation Karma is examined in light of several classical Indian texts Special attention is given to the concept of mind only in both Hinduism and Buddhism The study focuses on the positive approach to action first learned by the sage Vasisin the Mahabharata and then taught by him to Sri Rama in the Yogavasis It concludes with an exploration of the theological and ethical implications of action and creativity Ploughing the Clouds Peter Lamborn Wilson,2021-10-20 The Rig Veda written in India about 1500BC praises a holy plant called Soma which is sacrificed and consumed granting the drinker an experience of enlightenment and ecstasy The late Gordon Wasson identified Soma as a magic mushroom Amanita muscaria and he and his followers discovered that such Indo Europeans as the ancient Greeks Iranians and Norse had also used a Soma type plant In Ploughing the Clouds Peter Lamborn Wilson investigates the probability of a Soma cult in ancient Ireland tracing clues in Irish and other Celtic lore By comparing Celtic folktales romances epics and topographic lore with the Rig Veda he uncovers the Irish branch of the great Indo European tradition of psychedelic or entheogenic shamanism and even reconstructs some of its secret rituals He uses this comparative material to illuminate the deep meaning of the Soma function in all cultures the entheogenic origin of poetic frenzy the link between intoxication and inspiration Vienna 2019 - Encountering the Other: Within us, between us and in the world Emilija Kiehl,Jacqueline Egli, The XXI International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in Vienna the birthplace of psychoanalysis It brought together an unprecedented number of participants from all over the world and from different fields of knowledge The theme Encountering the Other Within us between us and in the world a most relevant and urgent topic of the contemporary discourse among clinicians and academics alike was explored in a rich and diverse program of pre congress workshops master classes plenary and breakout presentations and posters The Proceedings are published as two volumes a printed edition of the plenary presentations and an e Book with the complete material presented at the Congress To professionals as well as the general public this collection of papers offers an inspiring insight into contemporary Jungian thinking from the classical to the latest research based scientific lens From the Contents Deifying the Soul from Ibn Arabi to C G Jung by Navid Kermani Apocalyptic Themes in Times of Trouble When Young Men are Deeply Alienated by Robert Tyminski Panel Encountering the Other Within Dream Research in Analytical Psychology and the Relationship of Ego and other Parts of the Psyche by Christian Roesler Yasuhiro Tanaka Tamar Kron Integration Versus Conflict Between Schools of Dream Theory and Dreamwork integrating the psychological core qualities of dreams with the contemporary knowledge of the dreaming brain by Ole Vedfelt Freud and

H. Rick Jarow,2012-02-01 Tales for the Dying explores the centrality of death and dying in the narrative of the Bh gavata Pur na India s great text of devotional theism canonized as an integral part of the Vaisnava bhakti tradition The text grapples with death through an imaginative meditation one that works through the presence and power of narrative The story of the Bh gavata Pur na is spoken to a king who is about to die and it enables him to come to terms with his own passing The work does not isolate dying as an issue it treats it on many levels This book discusses how images of dying in the Bh gavata Pur na relate to issues of language and love in the religious imagination of India Drawing on insights from studies in myth literary semiotics and depth psychology as well as from Indian commentarial and aesthetic traditions the author examines the power of myth and narrative storytelling or hari katha and shows how a detailed awareness of the Puranic imagination may lead to a revisioning of some long held presuppositions around Indian religious attitudes toward dying By casting Vaisnava bhakti traditions and Puranic narrative in a fresh light the mythic imagination of the Pur nas takes its place on the stage of contemporary discourse on comparative mythology and literature Catalog of Copyright Entries.
