National Affects Angharad Closs Stephens, 2022-08-11 Identity is widely acknowledged to be a felt experience yet questions of atmosphere mood and public sentiments are rarely made central to understanding the global politics of nationalism This book asks what difference it makes when we address national identity as principally an affective force National Affects traces how ideas about us and them take form in ordinary spaces in ways that are both deeply felt and hardly noticeable in studies of global events that range from the London 2012 Olympic Games to responses to acts of terror the European refugee crisis and Brexit In this timely intervention Angharad Closs Stephens addresses the affective dimensions of being together to open new angles in the study of nationalism and global politics She asks how the nation is felt in everyday life as well as differently experienced and investigates different forms of enacting being together to generate new insights in the study of national identity National Affects draws on academic theories in the study of Politics International Relations and Human Geography as well as stories performance works and novels to establish a new tone of critical enquiry Informed by longstanding critical interrogations of the politics of us and them this book argues that these ideas are not as stable as they are often made to seem Drawing on a combination of artistic and academic interventions this book offers a refreshing approach to conceptualising the politics of nationalism identity and citizenship In its focus on everyday atmospheres it identifies new registers for intervening politically Overall National Affects outlines other ways of imagining and practising being political together beyond the exclusionary politics of nationalism Motherland Rita

Goldberg,2013-05-07 A groundbreaking second generation memoir of the Holocaust and its legacy by Otto Frank's goddaughter The extraordinary tale is heroic The New York Times Rita Goldberg recounts the extraordinary story of her mother Hilde Jacobsthal a close friend of Anne Frank's family who was fifteen when the Nazis invaded Holland After the arrest of her parents in 1943 Hilde fled to Belgium living out the war years in an extraordinary set of circumstances first among the Resistance and then at Bergen Belsen after its liberation In the words of The Guardian the story is worthy of a film script As astonishing as Hilde's story is Rita herself emerges as the central character in this utterly unique memoir Proud of her mother and yet struggling to forge an identity in the shadow of such heroic accomplishments not to mention her family's close relationship to the iconic Frank family Goldberg offers an unflinching look at the struggles faced by children and grandchildren whose own lives are haunted by historic tragedy Motherland is the culmination of a lifetime of reflection and a decade of research It is an epic story of survival adventure and new life A double memoir that braids her parents' story with her own and succeeds in articulating a difficult truth The Economist
