

Ordinary People Group Character Analysis

In a group of 2-3 students, create an outline for a one-page paper about a character of your choice or one that has been assigned to you by your teacher. A rule of thumb in a good character analysis, is to find at least three or four key elements of the character to discuss.

1. Your thesis should be inclusive without actually listing.
2. Support statements should include two quotations from the text.
3. Your evidence should come from the various ways we come to learn about a character.
 - a. What they say (indirect characterization)
 - b. What others say about them (indirect characterization)
 - c. A character's actions (indirect characterization)
 - d. A character's thoughts (indirect characterization)
 - e. What an author tells us about the character (direct characterization)

Goals of this assignment:

- To practice writing thesis topic sentences
- To practice choosing and using quotations effectively
- To evaluate characters as part of literary analysis
- To practice using the outline format
